Kidnappers Hold Wife of California Fruit Grower

Mrs. W. R. Meeks, 55, Captive; Husband Unable to Raise Ransom

Home Invaded

YUBA CITY, Calif. (AP)—Two masked men kidnapped Mrs. William R. Meeks, 55-year-old wife of a Sutter County rancher, from her home early this morning, demanding $15,000 ransom her husband said he could not raise.

"We'll contact you in a couple of days for that fifteen thousand," Meeks said the men told him as they carried his wife, bound hand and foot, from her home.

They left Meeks lying trussed up on his living-room floor and drove away in his automobile, later found abandoned on one of the main streets of Marysville, 15 miles north of the Meeks orchard.

The men spoke with an "Okla-homa accent," Meeks said, and talked about "the electric chair."

Both of these facts, Sheriff A. W. Kimmerer of Yuba County said, indicated the kidnappers probably were dust bowl refugees now employed as transient workers in the California fruit harvest.

G MEN SEARCH

The men were young, possibly 24 or 25, and roughly dressed. One of them carried a pistol. They were the first kidnappers for ransom to operate in northern California for nearly five years. Notified of the kidnapping by the Associated Press, Federal Bureau of Investigation men "moved in" and took charge.

"I couldn't raise the $15,000 even if I sold my orchard," Meeks said.

He first saw the kidnappers when he and his wife turned back into the house shortly after saying goodnight to friends with whom they had spent the evening.

The men spoke roughly, menacing Meeks with their pistol, ripped up a pillow case, tied up the Meeks with the strips and then ransacked the house.

It was when they returned from the search of the house the men spoke of kidnapping. They picked up Mrs. Meeks and carried her out, leaving the orchardist to struggle free.

The Meeks ranch is at Rio Oro, 15 miles south of Marysville, which adjoins Yuba City, on the highway to Sacramento.

Brooke Hart of San Jose, 22-year-old department store heir, was the victim of the last northern California kidnap, in November, 1933. His abductors demanded $40,000 ransom and killed Hart the same day. The body was recovered from San Francisco Bay and 12 hours later an infuriated mob lynched the confessed kidnappers—Thomas Thurmond and Jack Holmes.

LEGISLATURE WILL OPEN OCTOBER 25

The British Columbia Legislature will gather for its annual session in Victoria about October 25, it was learned today at the Legislative Buildings.

The official date will be announced shortly before Premier Pattullo and several of his cabinet colleagues leave for Ottawa at the end of this month, it is expected. This will give the up-country members the customary month's notice of the assembly.

THE WEATHER

VICTORIA, 3 a.m. today—A moderate depression appears to be centered west of Vancouver Island. The weather has been fair and warm over most parts of the British Columbia interior, while on the coast and lower mainland light thunder showers have occurred. Fine weather prevails in the prairie provinces.

EXPLORATION IN ROME—While leaders of several countries grapple with the Czech problem in an effort to keep peace in central Europe, people in the Italian capital are seeing a work of a vastly different nature—restoration of a large part of the ancient Colosseum. The success of the excavators is indicated by the above picture, which shows the present condition of the tunnels and rooms. After being covered by debris for centuries, they are being cleared for study by archaeologists.

Storm Here Is Light

Damage Caused to Power Lines When Storm Strikes at Vancouver and Seattle; Shingle Mill Destroyed

An unusually severe thunderstorm spread over the British Columbia south coast and in northwestern Washington State early today, disrupting electrical power lines and causing damage of $75,000 to a shingle mill at Blaine, Wash.

Victoria and the southern tip of Vancouver Island was on the edge of the disturbance and no damage was done. The distant roll of thunder was heard and a gentle rain fell.

The Peace Portal Shingle Mill at the international boundary town was struck by lightning about five minutes after the crew started work this morning. Attempts to save the structure failed.

Power lines to Vancouver were affected by the lightning, lights in the city flickered and street cars were almost halted.

Two 60,000-volt power lines from the B.C. Electric Railway Company's Ruskin, B.C., plant were struck and a line between Ruskin and Stave Falls plants was damaged.

The storm struck Vancouver about 10 last night and all lights in Vancouver and surrounding districts flickered and nearly went out as lightning struck one of the power lines from the Fraser Valley plants.

Mackenzie Sees Sham Battle

CAMP BORDEN, Ont. (CP)—Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Minister of National Defence, who arrived by plane from Ottawa today, witnessed the mimic warfare being engaged in by the permanent force of eastern Canada and two Toronto non-permanent militia regiments.

The minister, accompanied by Lieut.-Col. Clyde R. Scott, military secretary, was received on his arrival by Major-Gen. E. C. Ashton, chief of the general staff, and Brigadier W. H. P. Elkins, officer commanding Military District No. 2.

Murder Traced

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—District Attorney John Delaney of Albany County said today he intended to go to New York to question J. Richard (Dixie) Davis in connection with the slaying of Jules Martin, former henchman of the late Dutch Schultz.

Thirteen Face Trial

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Superintendent William B. Mills, Deputy Warden Frank A. Craven, nine guards and two physicians of the Philadelphia County prison were held without bail today for the jury after a coroner's jury had found them criminally negligent in the "baking" deaths of four convicts.

All were taken into custody immediately in a crowded city hall courtroom at the conclusion of a three-day inquest.

Thanksgiving Day General Holiday

Retail stores, business houses, schools and public buildings will all close on Thanksgiving Day, Monday, October 10, it was announced at the Legislative Buildings today as the formal proclamation from Ottawa fixing the date was gazetted. Thanksgiving Day, it was explained, is a general holiday under all provincial laws.

COL. VILLIERS IN HOSPITAL HERE

Mine Operator Brought From Cumberland in Special Coach

Lieut.-Colonel Charles Walter Villiers, general manager of Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir) Limited, was brought to the Jubilee Hospital here from his home at Cumberland yesterday afternoon, suffering from a back ailment.

Col. Villiers traveled in a special coach attached to the regular Esquimalt and Nanaimo train from upland. He was rushed from the railway depot to the hospital in a C. & C. ambulance.

He had been in hospital for three or four days recently, but had been discharged and returned home.

Border Incident

BERLIN (AP)—The DNB (official German news agency) reported a new incident today on the German-Czechoslovak border.

DNB said a shot fired from the Czechoslovak side narrowly missed hitting a German customs assistant on patrol duty. It charged the shot was fired by one of two Czechoslovak border officials observed leaving the scene shortly after.

BATTERY AT SYDNEY

SYDNEY, Australia (CP-Reuters)—Australia's largest coastal defence battery now guards Sydney harbor. The battery consists of two guns of 9.2 calibre, placed on huge concrete foundations on the north head of Port Jackson.

Japan Navy Leaders Slain

Tokio Admits Rear-Admiral J. Kato, Capt. S. Oide and Two Others Slain July 31 When Plane Shot Down Near Anking, China, by Chiang's Troops

TOKIO (AP)—The Japanese navy announced today that Rear-Admiral Jintaro Kato, Captain Soji Oide and Commanders Tasuchi Morroka and Michio Komodo were killed near Anking, China, July 31 when a navy flying boat was hit by Chinese anti-aircraft fire and fell within Chinese positions.

Woman Missing On Ship Voyage

Mrs. Idiensi, Who Was to Pass Through Victoria, Lost in English Channel

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng. (CP)—Mrs. Ethel Mary Idiensi, a tourist passenger, was reported missing from her cabin today when the liner Empress of Britain steamed through the English Channel toward this port. She was presumed to have been lost overboard.

Mrs. Idiensi was identified as an Australian who sailed from Southampton on the Empress on the last outward voyage to visit relatives, but decided to return when Canadian authorities told her her health demanded she be accompanied by someone if she were allowed to land in Canada.

FROM B.C. COAST

MONTREAL (CP)—Mrs. Ethel Mary Idiensi, who was reported today to have been lost overboard from the liner Empress of Britain in the English Channel, arrived at Quebec August 25, with the intention of spending two months in Canada before sailing from Vancouver and Victoria for Australia.

Mrs. Idiensi, who was 54, was held, however, by immigration authorities pending mental examination and returned voluntarily without seeking her sister, Mrs. Jessie Wilson of Dubuc, Sask. Mrs. Idiensi had planned to sail from Vancouver and Victoria on the liner Niagara October 25.

Japan Storm Toll

TOKIO (AP)—The toll of the 75-mile-an-hour typhoon which lashed eastern and central Japan Thursday has mounted to 99 known dead, 77 injured and 69 missing.

Police said 1,560 houses were demolished, 5,000 damaged and 140,000 flooded and 71 ships were washed away. There was widespread damage to roads and bridges.

Reports were incomplete from the western area. Property damage was estimated at 5,000,000 yen ($1,400,000) in Yokohama alone.

The storm swung northward and was reported to be blowing itself out over Hokkaido Island.

May Seek New Harbor Wall

Proposal to Widen Belleville Street to Be Discussed With Sir Edward Beatty

A proposal will be submitted to Sir Edward Beatty, C.P.R. president, on his arrival here tomorrow, to improve Belleville Street in a widening project entailing a fill on the sloping section of the harbor front formerly used for bleachers for the Show Boat. Mayor Andrew McGavin stated today.

Financing of the scheme, which would increase the width of the roadway another 20 feet, had not been arranged, but it was understood C.P.R. assistance might be sought in that direction.

Roughly the proposal calls for the erection of a retaining wall similar to that on the Government Street section of the harbor, to the full height of the road, filling in the hollow that would be created, and construction of a sidewalk and roadway to extend to the wall, as on Government Street. The plan would call for the lowering of the corner used by the C.P.R. Tennis Club and use of some of the material taken from that site as filler for the gap.

The city engineer had been instructed to prepare an approximate estimate of costs for the improvement, the mayor stated.

Tension Believed Less In Europe at Week-end

PLANE PILOT SAFE

The United States government is studying the note in which the Tokio government rejected its protest against the destruction of a China National Aviation Co. plane by Japanese warplanes near Canton August 24. Though 14 Chinese passengers were killed, Pilot Hugh L. Wood, a U.S. citizen whose home is in Kansas, escaped injury. Pan-American Airways have an interest in the Chinese company.

Surprise Sprung In Racket Trial

At New York Hines Defense Suddenly Ceases Questioning "Dixie" Davis

NEW YORK (AP)—District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey late today announced that the people's case against Tammany District Leader James J. Hines, accused political "fixer" of the multi-million dollar Dutch Schultz policy racket, was near its end.

This forenoon defence counsel caused surprise by dismissing J. Richard (Dixie) Davis, a star witness for the state and the man who "put the finger" directly on Hines, without asking a question beyond yesterday's five-hour cross examination.

Thus the dapper Dixie, 32-year-old former "kid mouthpiece" of the Schultz "policy empire," disappeared from the courtroom drama.

With Davis gone, his story against the Tammany boss was virtually unshaken.

William J. Millen, special internal revenue agent, testified that on June 6, 1933, he tapped Davis' telephone.

Justice Peckra intervened in a row between Dewey and defence counsel L. P. Stimpert to rule that wiretapped evidence could be introduced, on grounds New York state statutes did not prohibit such "eavesdropping."

CHANGE SOUGHT IN CEMETERIES ACT

A motion to limit operation of cemeteries within a 20-mile radius of a city or municipality-owned burial park, will be introduced to the City Council at its next meeting by Alderman R. A. C. Dewar, with a recommendation that it be passed along to the Union of British Columbia Municipalities at the forthcoming convention in Nelson.

The move was understood to be one to avoid direct competition with municipally-owned or sponsored burial parks.

The resolution asks that the provincial government amend the existing Cemeteries Act by the inclusion of a clause stating:

"No new cemetery or graveyard shall be opened or operated for the burial of the bodies or remains of dead persons, nor shall any permit be granted by the Provincial Board of Health for any such cemetery or graveyard within 20 miles of any cemetery operated by a municipality or by two or more municipalities under the provisions of the Municipal Cemeteries Act (being Chapter 34 of the Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936)."

Archie Benner, saw filer in the Peace Portal plant, which formerly was the Morrison mill, escaped from his perilous position in the upper part of the structure by climbing out of a window. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

Textile Workers In France Strike

Cabinet's Task of Dealing With Czech Dispute Complicated By Walk-out

PARIS (AP)—A strike of 14,000 textile workers in Amiens today added to the problems faced by the French cabinet, already perturbed over the international crisis and workers' opposition to lengthening the 40-hour week.

Protesting against proposed pay cuts ranging from 11 to 19 per cent, the Amiens employers refused to begin work and occupied several large factories. Company representatives said the reductions were necessary to keep plants running.

At Lille 800 municipal street car employees refused to begin service. The dispute concerned the discharge of 37 workers late week after employers had declared the payroll too large.

A cabinet communique did not disclose whether the ministers had taken definite action to enforce the modifications of the 40-hour week in industry already decreed.

PROBLEMS LINKED

The cabinet session had been expected to deal mainly with the German-Czechoslovak crisis, but Labor's opposition to an increase of labor hours in the interest of national defence made consideration of the strike threats imperative.

The government, in fact, considers the two problems as one, for it fears the crisis at home might give Adolf Hitler a go-ahead signal to settle the Sudeten Germans' autonomy demands by force.

Premier Edouard Daladier has reminded France repeatedly in the last two weeks that Chancellor Hitler remilitarized the Rhineland March 7, 1936, and annexed Austria March 13, 1938, when France was weakened by internal struggles.

CABINET GROUP GOING TO OTTAWA

Alaska Highway Seen as Chief Subject for B.C. Negotiations

Premier Pattullo and several members of the provincial cabinet will go to Ottawa at the end of September to discuss the "whole gamut of our general and mutual interests with the Dominion Government," the Premier announced today.

The Premier did not particularize on the subjects to be taken up with Premier King and the Dominion cabinet, but chief of them is expected to be the Alaska Highway project.

Reports current from Ottawa state that since the visit there of President Roosevelt the attitude of the federal authorities toward the scheme is changing, and that they may now be inclined to regard it favorably.

Unemployment, finances and public works are also regarded as certain points for negotiation. The personnel of the B.C. mission is not definitely chosen yet, but is expected to include, with the Premier, Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance; Hon. George S. Pearson, Minister of Labor, and possibly Attorney-General Wismer and Hon. G. M. Weir, Provincial Secretary.

Mill at Blaine Destroyed By Fire

BLAINE, Wash. (AP)—The main structure of the Peace Portal co-operative mill was destroyed by fire shortly after 8 o'clock this morning. A flash of lightning was believed to have started the blaze. Kilns and shingles were saved.

The smaller plant of Blaine Shingle Company, located near the co-operative plant, was endangered. This plant was closed Thursday when the heavily-loaded dry kilns collapsed into the bay.

Archie Benner, saw filer in the Peace Portal plant, which formerly was the Morrison mill, escaped from his perilous position in the upper part of the structure by climbing out of a window. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

London of Opinion No Hitler "Saturday Surprise" BUT NO PLEDGE

By Canadian Press

The London press seemed somewhat more confident today Hitler was not preparing a "Saturday surprise" for this week-end.

A moderate Sudeten deputy today replaced an extremist in a deputation of two which conferred with President Benes of Czechoslovakia at Praha.

Britain today awaited Hitler's reply to the personal appeal for peace reported as sent directly to Hitler by Viscount Runciman, unofficial British mediator in the Czech-German crisis.

NO NEW ASSURANCE

LONDON (CP)—Reports circulated in Berlin that Germany had given Great Britain a new assurance of "no precipitate action" over Czechoslovakia were denied in official circles today.

Sources close to the Foreign Office said no recent assurance had been received from Berlin, but they pointed out Chancellor Hitler in the past had declared his desire for a peaceful settlement in the Czech-Sudeten German dispute.

The reports were published in London papers under banner headlines.

The statement was said to have been made to Ambassador Sir Neville Henderson before his return to London last Sunday for conferences with the cabinet.

A Reuters News Agency dispatch from Berlin said the German Foreign Office refused to confirm the reports.

"Such an assurance is, most unlikely because it would be equivalent to a too simple and too rapid solution of the problem," Reuters quoted a German official as stating. "If the Reich had been ready to give an assurance of this kind, Lord Runciman would have had no reason to send Henlein to the Fuehrer."

BERCHTESGADEN, Germany (CP-Havas)—"Perfect harmony exists between Chancellor Hitler and Sudeten German Leader Konrad Henlein on the Czechoslovak situation, in an official communique announced today.

The announcement said Hitler and Henlein had found themselves in complete agreement in their views of the crisis arising from the deadlocked Sudeten German-Czechoslovak autonomy negotiations.

Henlein left Berghof, the Chancellor's villa, after a luncheon with Hitler which was attended by Foreign Minister von Ribbentrop and Field Marshal Herman Goerring's aide-de-camp, General von Bodenschatz.

The communique made it clear Henlein had come to see Chancellor Hitler at the request of Viscount Runciman, unofficial British mediator in the Czechoslovak crisis. It said the peer had desired that his views on a possible Czechoslovak settlement be communicated to the Reich Chancellor by the Sudeten German leader.

NEGOTIATIONS REPORTED

The communique read: "The Fuehrer and Chancellor received this morning at Obersalzberg Konrad Henlein, who outlined to the Fuehrer the negotiations between the Praha government and the Sudeten Germans."

"The Fuehrer followed with the greatest interest the declarations of Henlein and at the end of the conversations it was noted there was perfect harmony in their opinions on the present situation. Henlein, who was Chancellor Hitler's guest at luncheon, left Obersalzberg this afternoon."

Foreign Minister von Ribbentrop gave a report today to Chancellor Hitler on the British government's attitude in the Czech problem.

CZECH PRESIDENT MEETS SUDETENS

Benes Talk on Dispute in Praha With Henlein and a Moderate Deputy

PRAHA (CP-Havas) — President Benes conferred with Sudeten German spokesmen for more than three hours today on new proposals for conciliation of the conflict between the pro-Nazi and the Praha government.

The Sudeten German spokesmen were Deputy Ernst Kundt and Dr. Wilhelm Sebekowsky. Observers attached importance to the fact that Sebekowsky, a moderate, has replaced Deputy Karl Frank in the negotiations. Frank belongs to the more extremist branch of the Sudeten German Party.

The fact negotiations are continuing was in itself regarded as encouraging.

Kundt brushed aside news photographers when the delegation arrived.

"We have important negotiations to carry on with the President," he said. "We have no time to lose."

Kundt is chief spokesman for Konrad Henlein, leader of the Sudeten Germans.

The National Slovak Party today submitted a resolution to the government opposing any move to divide Czechoslovakia into cantons modelled after the Swiss state. They asserted they were opposed to any solution of the Czechoslovak minorities' problem capable of destroying Slovak territorial and administrative unity.

Execution in Berlin

BERLIN (AP)—Ernst Weisser, 36, was executed today for spying into state secrets and theft. For the first time in the history of the court, the exact nature of the offence was revealed, as Weisser was accused of stealing the mechanism of the latest German development in munitions with the intention of selling it to an unnamed foreign government.

Italian Trade Effort

GENOA, Italy (CP-Reuters)—Creation of an Italian company to develop trade with the Union of South Africa is reported being studied by Milan industrialists. Italian textiles and machinery would be exchanged for South African raw materials, for the import of which the Italian government would grant special permits.

Britain Seeks Polish Accord

LONDON (AP)—Great Britain was understood today to be seeking a new understanding with Poland in what was interpreted as some quarters as an effort to persuade Germany to adopt a policy of moderation in central Europe.

A pro-British or neutral Poland, informed quarters felt, would be invaluable to the Anglo-French cause in any dispute with Germany.

This was thought to be the main reason for recent visits of the British charge d'affaires to Col. Joseph Beck, Polish Foreign Minister, in Warsaw, and the visit Wednesday of the Polish charge d'affaires to Viscount Halifax, Foreign Secretary.

Wedged between Russia and Germany, Poland would be in a difficult position in any major European conflict, it was pointed out. Poland has a 10-year friendship agreement with Nazi Germany, but belief was expressed in informed London quarters the main Polish hope in a war would lie in choosing the winning side.

Jews Barred At Italy's Schools

No More In State Institutions But They May Attend Private Ones

ROME (AP)—The Italian government today excluded Jews from state-recognized schools, universities and "all academies, institutes and associations of science, arts and letters."

The decree, announced after a meeting of the cabinet, imposed the first restrictions on the participation of Jews in the life of the nation since the expulsion, ordered yesterday, of foreign Jews who came to Italy since January 1, 1919.

Jews already enrolled in universities as students will be permitted to complete their studies. The suspension of Jewish teachers, school administrators and academicians will become effective October 16.

The decree was expected to throw a considerable number of university professors out of jobs, but the rolls of various academies indicated few Jews hold memberships therein.

Jewish graduates of secondary schools may continue studies in universities "in a transitory manner," the decree said. That was the only exception. Enrollment of Jewish students in any grade of an educational institution recognized by the state was otherwise forbidden.

Curtailment of cultural activities of Jews was expected in further restrictions which, the decree indicated, would be imposed by the Fascist Grand Council when it meets October 1.

The decree said the Grand Council would fix a comprehensive basis for governing the "participation of Jews in the full life of the nation." The slogan of racial policy has been: "No Jews in the state, one Hebrew per thousand Italians in the life of the nation."

Foreign Jewish students previously had been barred from all Italian schools.

Under the new decree, Jewish children will have to attend their own schools or other private schools whose diplomas are not recognized by the state.

Teaching of the Arabic language in secondary schools also was ordered, apparently to further Italian colonization and propaganda in Italy's empire.

ROOSEVELT AGAIN INVITES LIBERALS

Says He Would Welcome Election of Republicans of That Type to Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt told reporters today he would have no objection to the election of a liberal running on the Republican ticket.

He said the United States people were beginning to think more in terms of principles than personalities.

"The good of the country rises above party," he said.

The President told his press conference:

"It is an absolutely unjustified assumption which is being made by Detroit papers that a failure to go to dedicate the international bridge at Port Huron (Mich.) is in any way connected with the Michigan campaign."

"It is a deliberate distortion of the fact and the Detroit papers might as well get that."

He had been asked to dedicate the Port Huron bridge late this month. The President explained, however, it would be difficult for him to get away from Washington for any extensive trip before the general election.

Boards to Direct Making of Planes

MONTREAL (CP)—The Gazette said today it was understood, Paul F. Sise of Montreal had "definitely agreed" to act as the head of the Canadian organization which will handle construction of bombing planes in Canada for the British Air Ministry.

While no official announcement had been made, the Gazette said, "it is further learned that the organization, which will build two plants in Canada for assembling the war machines, will be controlled by a board of nine directors."

Mr. Sise is president of the Northern Electric Company.

"Also established under the plan agreed on by the governments and manufacturers," the Gazette continued, "is a board which will act as a liaison group between the British Government and the Canadian directors."

Sir Charles Gordon, president of the Bank of Montreal, would be a member of that board, it was stated.

Survivors of Slide Improve

ST. GREGOIRE DE MONTMORENCY, Que. (CP)—A sea of knee-deep mud holding part of the wreckage of two dwellings was all that remained today of a landslide that swept 250 feet down the steep cliff over this little town of 3,000 and killed three women and a child.

The two buildings, housing 10 families, were crushed early yesterday in the worst landslide in the history of the district, six miles east of Quebec on the St. Lawrence River and in the shadow of the flood-swollen Montmorency Falls.

More than 10 persons were injured, but at the hospital it was reported their injuries were not serious.

NORMAL AGAIN

PORTNEUF, Que. (CP)—This St. Lawrence Valley town of 2,000 resumed its normal quiet today after 24 hours of tragedy and confusion, brought on by floods that caused the loss of seven lives and damage of at least $400,000.

The rainstorm struck quickly late Wednesday and in a few hours had transformed the Portneuf River into a turbulent current, sweeping bridges, homes and even roads before it.

British Labor Harmony Seen

U.S. Commission Reports to Roosevelt on Confidence and Co-operation

WASHINGTON (AP)—A special commission told President Roosevelt today British industry and labor maintain industrial peace through mutual confidence and co-operation.

The commission, which made a first-hand survey of labor relations in the United Kingdom, offered no recommendations.

It said, however, where collective bargaining agreements mutually satisfactory to national unions and national employers' associations had existed for a long period, strikes had been few and violence rare.

Mr. Roosevelt, making the report public, commented:

"To me, the most salient feature of it is the co-operative spirit, coupled with restraint, which is shown by those who represent both employers and employees in Great Britain."

There has been no indication, however, that these studies might form a basis for possible revision of the Wagner Labor Relations Act at the next session of the United States congress.

Anglo-American Example Set

ABERDEEN, Scotland (AP)—Joseph Kennedy, United States Ambassador to Great Britain, gave Europe's leaders a tip today to follow the example of Great Britain and the United States in settling their differences.

He expressed confidence that Anglo-American devotion to the principle of "good-natured settlement" would "keep us out of war."

The ambassador spoke at a luncheon preceding a ceremony at the cathedral of Aberdeen.

His reference was to settlement of British and United States claims over Canton and Enderbury Islands in the South Pacific by which both countries decided to use them in common.

Tilt Staged In Nova Scotia

Newspaper Writers Norman MacLeod, H. Dingman and Mrs. Tufts, Answering Premier Macdonald's Complaint, Say Stories of Fishermen's and Miners' Hardships are True

HALIFAX (CP)—Premier Angus L. Macdonald resents "these inaccurate representations of conditions in this province by uninformed and ill-advised outsiders."

"If one reads certain Nova Scotia newspapers nowadays he will be led to believe that all the poverty, the misery, the distress, the squalor of Canada is concentrated in Nova Scotia," said the Premier, speaking yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the Nova Scotia Women's Liberal Association.

"Some of our native journalistic agents, not satisfied with their own home-made brand of frightfulness, are now receiving a measure of aid from two wandering journalists from Ontario — of all places—who have come down here to tell us what is wrong with us and with our province."

"One of these, Mr. Harold Dingman, represents the Toronto Globe and Mail. He had been in the province only a few days when he discovered and proclaimed to the world that 10,000 people in our Nova Scotia fishing villages were on the verge of starvation."

Mr. Dingman never visited a single government department, "nor, so far as I know, a single government official to ascertain the facts," said the Premier.

"They (Dingman's figures) are as unreliable as his statement that the gross yearly earnings along the Atlantic seaboard are less than $75 a man, when in reality they are several times greater than that."

"Another journalist writing in the Saturday Night of August 20 under the name of 'Rideau Banks,' makes statements regarding the fishing industry that are equally at variance with the facts."

MACLEOD'S REPLY

TORONTO (CP)—Norman MacLeod, a member of the Ottawa Press Gallery, whose stories have appeared in the Victoria B.C. Daily Times, made the following statement last night regarding criticism by Premier Macdonald of Nova Scotia of MacLeod's writings as "Rideau Banks" dealing with conditions in the eastern province:

"Having regard to the conditions which I witnessed at first hand among the fishermen and miners of Nova Scotia, I now make the carefully considered statement in reply to Premier Macdonald that, in my opinion, the articles which I wrote were, if anything, too moderate in their tone to do justice to the situation."

"I did not overdraw the Nova Scotia picture. Neither, I am pleased to add of my own volition, did Harold Dingman, whose excellent articles I have read. And neither has Mrs. Evelyn Tufts, my other Press Gallery colleague, who has written extensively on conditions in the fishing and mining villages."

TALKED WITH PEOPLE

"Like Mr. Dingman, I come under Premier Macdonald's condemnation for not having visited 'a single government department to ascertain the facts.' Like Mr. Dingman, I went to the fishermen and miners themselves. Similarly, if the Parliament Buildings were burning, I would not go down to the Ottawa fire chief's office for my story; I would go to the fire itself."

"I doubt if any government spectacles that Premier Macdonald himself might have put on me would have been able to disguise the true facts of the picture which I saw."

DINGMAN'S REPLY

OTTAWA (CP)—Harold Dingman, staff writer of the Toronto Globe and Mail, made the following "answer to Premier Macdonald" of Nova Scotia, who had criticized his reports of conditions among Maritime fishermen:

"Everything I have written concerning the plight of the Nova Scotia fishermen and the miners, I have seen with my own eyes and heard from the lips of the men and women concerned, and from the church leaders in the little communities."

"My inspection of Nova Scotia was in pursuance of the policy of the Globe and Mail of concerning itself with the problems of all the provinces of Canada."

"And to the problems of Nova Scotia, where the two great industries, mining and fishing, are in desperate circumstances, I gave my best attention. I spent many days in intensive study before writing a single word."

"I estimated that 10,000 fishermen were on the verge of starvation. I went up and down the coast, into the villages and into the homes, and no single man said that he had earned more than $75 per year. Most of them, in fact, told me they made nothing whatever—nothing. And it appeared to me they were just barely existing."

MRS. TUFTS REPLIES

HALIFAX (CP)—The following statement was issued by Mrs. Evelyn S. Tufts, Ottawa correspondent of the Halifax Herald:

"As one of the journalists singled out for attack by the Premier of Nova Scotia before a political gathering in Halifax, I may say that I have no apologies to make to Premier Macdonald or anyone else for the truthful, first-hand accounts of destitution and distress in certain fishing and mining districts of Nova Scotia which have come under my personal observation and of which I have written for the Halifax Herald."

"I wish to point out that I was born in this province, in a shore village among the seafaring people. I have lived practically my whole life in it. For the past four years I have carried out an intensive survey of our fishing communities, many of which today are faced with literal starvation."

"I was at Thorburn the night they (miners) decided to ask for provincial relief because children there that day had no dinner and would have no breakfast next morning."

CALLED DISGRACE

"I wish to repeat with all the emphasis at my command that there are conditions prevailing today, among fishing villages particularly, that are a disgrace to the province, the nation and the very name of democracy."

"There are young men of 18 sleeping in the same room—a kitchen—with their father and mother, along with five or six girls and boys from the ages of 15 to a few weeks. There are whole villages where visiting nurses report malnutrition 100 per cent. There are places where every child but a half dozen has incipient tuberculosis, where there is one cow to 30 families, and the children have not had fruit, fresh milk or vegetables for years."

Four-year Sentence

VANCOUVER (CP)—Police Magistrate H. S. Wood today sentenced Frank Garnham to four years' imprisonment for unlawful possession of opium. In addition to the penitentiary term Garnham was fined $200, with the option of an additional one month in prison.

"You are a menace to society," the magistrate said after reading the convicted man's police record. He made no other comment on the record other than to say: "You have had previous convictions for narcotic offences."

Old Man Beaten

WINNIPEG (CP)—Beaten and robbed of part of his monthly old age pension, James Lytle, 79, Winnipeg, was found lying in a vacant lot in the north end today. He told police he was attacked by two men. He suffered a cracked rib and possible fracture of one thigh bone.

U.S. Acts Seen as Balance for Europe

MOSCOW (CP-Havas)—Pravda, Communist party organ, predicted today the United States would throw its influence into the balance of European politics "for defence of peace, lawfulness and liberty."

In an article on the American attitude toward present international events, Pravda said:

"The United States is intensifying its struggle against Japanese, German and Italian Fascist intrigues on the American continent and demonstrating an ever-increasing interest in European events, particularly in Czechoslovakia."

TWO LOSE LIVES

MONTREAL (CP)—A heart attack caused George H. Garlick, 60, to lose control of his car in suburban Lachine last night, and the machine crashed into a house killing Thos. Davies, 82, and fatally injuring Mrs. Garlick. Coroner R. Duckett found a verdict of accidental death. Garlick was injured slightly and remained in hospital today.

FIELD FOR GERMANS

BERLIN (CP-Havas)—The Hamburger Freidenkblatt today called for a "German Monroe doctrine" which would give the Reich a right in effect to supervise the foreign policy of all central Europe.

The American Dental Association by the use of dramatic exhibits will tell the story of teeth and their effect on health to millions of visitors at the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition on Treasure Island.

Lindberghs Speed From Praha Crowd

PRAHA (AP)—Col. Charles Lindbergh entertained Praha with some unexpected airplane stunts today when he and Mrs. Lindbergh landed here from Olmütz, where foggy weather had held them overnight.

The flier twice raced his plane across the field with four automobiles bearing Czechoslovak and United States officials in pursuit.

Without lifting his plane, Lindbergh managed to evade about 500 Czechoslovaks who broke through a small police guard and chased the plane with bouquets and presents.

Finally Col. and Mrs. Lindbergh jumped into the automobile of Major Lowell Riley, military attaché of the United States legation here, and were taken to the legation. Their next destination was not known.

5-months' Revenue Up

OTTAWA (CP)—Decrease of $1,900,676 was reported today by Hon. J. L. Isley, minister of finance, in August receipts from customs, excise and income tax collections of $31,885,707, compared with $33,786,383 in the corresponding 1937 month.

An increase of $9,836,103 was shown, however, in collections of $232,475,466 in the five months ended August 31, against $222,639,363 in the corresponding period last year.

Conference Plan

LONDON (CP)—Robert Boothby, Conservative member of parliament, wrote a letter to The London Daily Telegraph (Conservative) today advocating a formal and immediate consultation among Britain, France and Soviet Russia on the Czechoslovakia situation. He suggested also that "the President of the United States be kept informed of any decision that may be jointly made."

Turning Point in Czech Dispute

Diplomats in Berlin Give Opinion of Hitler-Henlein Talks

By ROBERT SCHILDBACH
Associated Press Foreign Staff

BERLIN—A second attempt of Chancellor Hitler and his Sudeten German lieutenant, Konrad Henlein, to agree today on how far to go with Sudeten minority demands was regarded in diplomatic circles as a possible turning point in the Czech-German crisis.

Hitler and Henlein and high Nazi leaders met yesterday at Berchtesgaden, Bavaria, and the Fuehrer and Henlein met again today.

Hitler, said Nazi sources, "has taken an active hand to help clear the political horizon, everything our Fuehrer so far has tackled he brought to a happy conclusion."

"If the Praha government, instead of announcing one plan after another without being able to realize any of its promises would only do something positive," exclaimed one official close to the Wilhelmstrasse.

"Positive" action, this official said, would be some appointments of Germans to responsible positions in Sudeten regions, and he predicted such appointments of Germans to responsible positions in Sudeten regions would turn the tide overnight.

(Britain and France have feared that Germany might force a war in aiding the Sudeten Germans. Germany is known, however, to want an understanding on peace with Britain and this desire may emerge as a factor in the present apparent steps by Hitler to end the Czech crisis.)

Search for Girl

WINNIPEG (CP)—Ethel B. Barker, 15-year-old Winnipeg girl missing since August 13, when she was believed to have left Edmonton for her Winnipeg home, was living at a Barclay Street address in Vancouver as recently as August 16, authorities reported today.

Mel Hiller, manager of a transportation company, said Miss Barker wrote August 16 for a refund on her bus ticket, which was not completely used. A check was sent to 1274 Barclay Street, Vancouver, but apparently the girl had left as it was returned, with the envelope marked "Opened by mistake, Mrs. Eddy."

Police also said they learned the girl had asked a friend in Win. to write to her under the name of Blakely, care of general delivery, Vancouver.

Lightning Hits Two

MOUNT VERNON, Wash. (AP)—Lightning bolts felled two persons today. Ralph Entner suffered a head injury when he was knocked down by lightning which damaged his beach home west of here.

Mrs. A. L. Mitchell, 55, was felled at her home here. Lightning also split the flagpole on the American Legion hall at Conway and started a blaze which was extinguished quickly.

Manion Scores Third Party Plan

HALIFAX (CP)—Canadianism is the only "ism" involved in his advocacy of long-range planning of the nation's economic life, Hon. R. J. Manion, National Conservative Leader, said here last night in the second address of his three-day Maritimes tour.

"I am not suggesting planning as we know the word in Italy, Germany or Russia," he said. "I mean a methodical effort to give greater justice, to preserve our institutions, not to curtail our liberties. I am advocating no 'ism' except good, decent Canadianism."

The Conservative leader said there had been talk in the Maritimes recently of some groups joining a third party.

"Third parties get nowhere in British countries," he said. "They never have yet. They elect a few as they always do, but they're always on the outside. Reforms of real character should come from the inside."

There must be some measure of control over industrialists—not the majority, happily—who thought more of their machinery than they did of their workers, he said. When depression affected business, some industrialists closed their plants, oiled the machinery and put watchmen over it and "throw the workers into the streets."

"The selfish industrialist who does not realize his responsibility to the community must be made to realize it," he said.

Prize Awarded on Vernon Butter

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Vernon, B.C., plant of the North Okanagan Co-operative Creamery Association has been awarded the grand aggregate prize for the second and successive year at the Canadian Pacific Exhibition here.

The Vernon creamery took first place, 110 point ahead of Burns Limited of Edmonton.

The win also gave the Vernon plant the honor of the greatest aggregate score for British Columbia entries. This is the sixth consecutive year butter from the Vernon creamery has been awarded this honor.

Pensions Issue In U.S. Primaries

WASHINGTON (AP)—Elderly persons hoping for security in state or United States federal pensions are making new political history this year from Maine to California and from Washington to Florida.

Pension promises for the aged have played some important roles in determining the outcome of primary elections and shaping the issues for the fall campaign in several states.

The Democratic nomination of Sheridan Downey over Senator William C. McAdoo in California Tuesday emphasized the political potentialities of the voters who want more and bigger pensions.

Downey campaigned as an advocate of a system which became known as the "30-every-Thursdays" plan. He said all unemployed persons over 50 years of age should get the equivalent of $30 a week in state scrip. President Roosevelt called it a "fantastic shortcut to Utopia," and McAdoo also criticized it.

Two days ago the California Supreme Court opened the way for a referendum on the plan by refusing to bar it from the November election ballot.

PROPOSALS VARY

There have been few primaries this year lacking candidates with some sort of pension proposal.

Senator Claude Pepper of Florida, first administration supporter to win renomination, campaigned as a Townsend plan advocate. Representative D. Worth Clark, who defeated Senator James P. Pope in the Idaho Democratic primary, also favored the Townsend plan; and in Oregon both senatorial nominees—Rufus C. Holman, Republican, and Willis Mahoney, Democrat, have advocated the system.

In Texas, W. Lee O'Daniel won a smashing victory for the governorship. His principal plank was a $30 monthly pension for all persons over 65.

The Democratic senatorial race in Washington also provides a pension issue. Senator Homer T. Bone is opposed for renomination by Otto A. Case of Seattle. Like Bone, Case supports the Roosevelt administration, but in addition is an ardent Townsendite.

In Georgia William G. McCrae, one of four Democratic candidates for senator, has supported the Townsend plan.

Deathrate Slightly Higher in Canada

OTTAWA (CP)—The death rate in Canada during 1937 was the highest in any year since 1930, according to preliminary figures released yesterday by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

Exclusive of stillbirths, there were 113,694 deaths during 1937, giving a death rate of 10.2 per 1,000 population. These figures compare with 107,050 deaths and a rate of 9.7 in 1936. Deaths under one year numbered 16,675, and infant death rate was 76 per 1,000 births against 14,574 deaths and a rate of 66 in 1936. Maternal deaths totaled 1,067 compared with 1,233 and the rate was 4.9 per 1,000 live births against 5.6.

Live births numbered 219,988 in 1937 compared with 220,371 in 1936, and the rate was 19.8 per 1,000 population against 20. There were 8,543 illegitimate births recorded, forming 3.9 per cent of all live births against 8,633 illegitimate births and the same proportion in the preceding year. Stillbirths totaled 6,538 or 2.9 per cent of all births. In 1936 they numbered 6,350 or 2.8 per cent.

Auto Fatality

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP)—An unidentified man died while being taken to a hospital last night after he had been struck by an automobile police said.

Police said Brennan told them he did not see the pedestrian, who was walking in the same direction as his south-bound car. No charge was laid against the driver.

Beatty Favors Tax Vacation

C.P.R. Head, Speaking in Vancouver, Says Levies Should Be Reduced

VANCOUVER (CP)—Sir Edward Beatty suggested last night that the young men of the Vancouver Junior Board of Trade should consider whether the time has not come for "those taxing authorities whose credit will still permit them to borrow" to try a tax holiday.

The president and chairman of Canadian Pacific Railway in his address to the board said such a holiday would tend to stimulate private enterprise and make Canadians "honest with ourselves" by not trying to hide the fact Canada is spending too much money behind a screen of invisible taxation.

"The effect of taxation in inhibiting enterprise is so serious today that I have become actually interested in the suggestion of a tax holiday," he said.

"That means that the Dominion Government, for example, should risk an increase in its deficit, for the purpose of reducing taxation drastically."

"I do not offer the idea as a definite recommendation," he said. "I suggest to you young men that you consider it."

"We shall never cure unemployment in Canada until private enterprise revives, and private enterprise will never revive until taxation is lessened."

ALL NOT WELL

Sir Edward said it was his opinion "all is far from being well in Canada."

"There are still grave and obvious defects in our internal economic system," he said.

"There are still too many unemployed. Too many of the public authorities of the country are carrying on their functions at an annual loss. Taxes are still far too high."

"We have burdened the producers of this country with the support of too many who do not produce, and this burden hampers them in their determined efforts to meet the competition of others in foreign markets."

I argue that this country cannot, in addition to maintaining a reasonable standard of living for those who produce, provide on the present scale for those who do not and still permit its producers to compete in world markets."

"On the ability of the prairie farmers, the miners and the lumbermen to conduct their business profitably, he said, depends the growth and fortunes of Vancouver. If they are burdened with too great production costs, then Vancouver's foreign trade will vanish."

"The way to make taxation less of a burden is to lower it," he said. "The way to lower it is to make people realize they are paying it."

INVISIBLE LEVIES

"Probably the greatest curse which has affected us has been the success of our taxing authorities in making taxation appear invisible."

However, Sir Edward said he believed that despite all mistakes of the past, the position of the Dominion was economically sound, though the margin between soundness and disaster was not a wide one.

All the economic waste which added to the cost of production should be eliminated as far as possible, he said. Canada should cease the "endless increase of public expense and public debt, which can have but one end, and that a most unfortunate one."

Music Urged as Strong Peace Aid

TORONTO (CP)—If the various mad nations of the world would take enough time off from rearmament to learn some of each other's songs, they would find themselves a lot nearer peace than all their conferences and pacts are likely to get them, in the opinion of Sir Ernest MacMillan, principal of the Toronto Conservatory of Music.

While he did not feel one should take at its full face value Moliere's statement that universal peace would reign if all men were to learn music, he considered many more impracticable world peace plans had been advanced, he told the directors of the Canadian National Exhibition at a luncheon yesterday.

HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENT

EDMONTON (CP)—Federal assistance for the province of Alberta, "subject to the latter undertaking to improve the highway from Edmonton to Jasper National Park to a standard equal to that existing between Calgary and Banff National Park," is being sought by the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce, the Alberta Motor Association and the National Parks Highway Association here, it was announced today.

D. W. Beaubier, M.P., Dies in Brandon

Passing of Conservative Member Leaves Four Vacancies in Commons

BRANDON, Man. (CP)—David W. Beaubier, Conservative member in the House of Commons for Brandon, died here yesterday afternoon.

He had been in poor health for some time and since his return from the last House of Commons session at Ottawa had been confined to his home.

Mr. Beaubier, a pioneer in this district, was born in St. Mary's, Ont., and came west in the early eighties. He was active in the hotel business, later farming, and then general business.

In 1916 he organized the 181st Battalion and took it to England. He was made a lieutenant-colonel. Mr. Beaubier was an unsuccessful candidate in Brandon in 1925 and 1926, but in 1930 was elected and re-elected in 1935.

The widow and six children survive him.

OTTAWA (CP)—Death of David Beaubier, M.P. for Brandon, brought the number of vacancies in the House of Commons to four.

The other constituencies vacant are London, Waterloo South and Montreal Cartier. In all instances the sitting members died. Standing in the Commons now is: Liberals 178, Conservatives 36, Social Credit 17, Co-operative Commonwealth Federation 6, Independent 2, Reconstruction 1, United Farmers of Ontario-Labor 1, vacant 4; total 245.

COUNCIL STOPS BUILDING

EDMONTON (CP)—The Edmonton Council yesterday blocked proposed construction of a $10,000 "California court style" apartment house in Garneau district by refusing to sell to H. W. Brooker four city-owned lots required for the project.

MILITIA CAMP

OTTAWA (CP)—More than 50,000 members of the militia were trained in camps throughout Canada this summer, a peacetime record, Defence Minister Mackenzie said yesterday. The minister flew to Camp Borden today to inspect the permanent force manoeuvres.

Teacher Appointed

LADYSMITH—The Ladysmith School Board has appointed Miss Bella Weiss of Vancouver as high school teacher here. This will complete appointments to the teaching staffs for the year.

A senior matriculation class will be held. The nine written applications are expected to increase to a larger number when it is known this class will be held.

There are now 17 teachers on the school staffs here, and nearly 600 pupils are expected to attend school in September.

SEATTLE EVENT

SEATTLE (AP)—Rolland H. Denny, only survivor of the party which founded Seattle, observed his 87th birthday anniversary today. He was born at Portland and was about two months old when the founding party landed at Alki.

Italy's Anti-Jew Acts Denounced

LONDON (CP-Havas)—Branding as "medieval" the Rome government's edict ordering out of the country all Jews who settled in Italy after the Great War, The Times, London (Independent), today warned the Fascist move would seriously complicate the work of the 30-nation refugee committee now at grips with the problem of German and Austrian emigres.

The newspaper declared the record of Jews in Italian history was honorable.

The drive on the Jews was seen as repudiation of the liberalism which was a distinctive characteristic of the men who founded the Italian state.

Royal Oak Jerseys Winners at Fair

VANCOUVER (CP)—Herbert E. Burbridge of Royal Oak, Vancouver Island, won top honors yesterday with his entries in the Jersey cattle section of the Canada Pacific Exhibition here.

His Babbacombe Rondin Rhoda became grand champion and reserve, any age, and senior champion and reserve, two years of age or over.

Mr. Burbridge's heifers and milking cows also placed him in the judging.

Mellowed in Office

PRIME MINISTER GENERAL J. B. M. Hertzog of the Union of South Africa has said several times lately that if Great Britain became involved in a new European war South Africa probably would aid her. But these declarations have not suited the Nationalists in the House of Assembly. As the government's opposition, they moved a resolution on Tuesday censuring the Premier, but they were the only members who voted for it—17 of them—and 76 said No.

This reminds us of an adage: The politician in office is quite a different individual from the politician in opposition. The same General Hertzog, less than five years ago, was the titular head of the Nationalist Party. Carrying its banner, he had previously won a general election from General Smuts's South African Party; but in December, 1934, the two old comrades in arms of Boer War days sank their political differences, and merged their followers into what is now called the United Party. As such it was overwhelmingly endorsed by the electorate at the polls a month or so ago.

It is fitting, moreover, to recall the truism that office also has a mellowing effect. Although Ramsay MacDonald was mild in his earlier Socialism, compared with General Hertzog in his anti-British Nationalism, he ended up as Prime Minister in control of the affairs of a Cabinet composed almost wholly of hard-shelled Imperialists. And only very grudgingly did General Hertzog shed his republicanism. He was in a class with the former Irish Free State's De Valera.

The Imperial Conference of 1926, which gave birth to the famous Balfour resolution—implemented later by the Statute of Westminster—brought about a definite change in General Hertzog's point of view. From that gathering, the first of its kind he had attended, he went back home convinced that there was little of any benefit his country could get outside the British family that it could not get as a partner in the Commonwealth. So in 12 years—a few seconds in the life of a nation—he finds himself able to defy, in his capacity as Prime Minister, the party which owed its birth largely to his own political shrewdness and his own particular grudge against practically everything British.

Thus will General Hertzog's victory in the House of Assembly last Tuesday bear witness not only to the mellowing effect of office in public life but also to his acquired conviction that Great Britain, the senior Dominion of the collection of self-governing nations which comprise most of the British family, stands for international morality and fair dealing.

Trade Missioners

OVER THE SIGNATURE OF HON. W. D. Euler, the Minister, and Mr. J. G. Parmelee, the Deputy Minister, the Department of Trade and Commerce at Ottawa has published in the newspapers of Canada a simple but effective advertisement telling the public what 54 officials of this branch of the governmental service are doing in foreign countries to help Canadian exporters to increase their business. This is the right kind of publicity because it should assist the taxpayers of the country to understand how vitally their own welfare is wrapped up in the business the Dominion does with the rest of the world—what she sells to her Empire relatives and to her foreign friends.

The advertisement, indeed, reminds all our citizens that the maintenance of our export trade is so vital to Canada that the Dominion Government, through the Department of Trade and Commerce, keeps these trade commissioners and assistant trade commissioners in other countries. All of them were well trained for this work. They are foreign trade specialists. They know what Canada grows and manufactures. And they are constantly studying foreign markets to find new outlets for Canadian products and to report changes in business conditions that may effect the sale of already established lines of Canadian merchandise.

It is not necessary to dwell at length on the fact that the work these trade commissioners do cannot be measured by any single year's accomplishments. The results are cumulative. Small initial orders they help Canadian exporters to secure one year frequently grow into larger and larger orders. Manufacturers, working men, farmers, practically everyone in Canada benefits from the work done by these trade representatives of Canada in other lands. The more products sold abroad, the more work for those producing them on the farms, in the forests, on the seas, in the mines and in the factories.

As we have pointed out many times in these columns, governments can do so much, and no more, to assist in the expansion of foreign markets for Canadian products. It is the policy of the present government in Ottawa to facilitate the exchange of goods between this and other nations by removing every possible obstacle to the free flow of such commodities as we have for sale and to those which the law of economics prescribes we buy in return. This policy has paid Canada. It will continue to pay our exporters according to the manner in which they take advantage of it.

Dangerous Alliances

AFTER ALL THE PUBLICITY THEY had given him, in spite of the romance which crack crime reporters tried to breathe into their narratives of his many exploits, desperado Floyd Hamilton, let a large number of United States newspapers and periodicals down badly when he turned out to be just an ordinary, inferior type of thug. Although blazoned in the headlines as "Public Enemy Number One," he took on more of the appearance of a cheap pickpocket or a crestfallen chicken thief when the law finally tapped him on the shoulder as he was trying to make his way out of town on a freight car with only $6.24 to his name.

Mr. Hamilton has probably realized ere this that crime does not pay. The general public, of course, is certain now that the temporarily opulent gangster fits the same mould as the petty pilferer, although the big city operator—the Dutch Schultz and the Al Capones would never admit to being within a thousand miles of the Floyd Hamiltons—feels that his association with the "great ones" of the political realm entitles him to be classified with Caesar's wife. This philosophy works only for a time. It withers under the penetrating gaze of the Deweyes. Unfair, uneconomic, or blatantly improper practices come to light sooner or later. And the taxpayer is growing more fastidious; he is beginning to take the trouble to measure the "goods" he receives for his money with the yardstick of merit and fair dealing.

Hence, it may be fitting to observe that the trial which now is proceeding in New York—referred to in these columns yesterday—is more than a gentle reminder of the dangers attendant upon the creation of alliances which will not stand up against exacting scrutiny. Happily for Canada, her public men, for the most part, are in political life because they feel they have a useful contribution to make to the welfare of their country.

5,000 Years Hence

WHAT WILL THE WORLD OF TODAY look like to the people of the world 5,000 years hence? The question is intriguing. But the authorities responsible for the World's Fair at New York intend to answer it by undertaking to preserve some "trinkets" for posterity in a large "time capsule"—which is to be seven feet long by eight inches wide and deep.

Within the next few weeks the capsule is to be buried in the fair grounds. In the meantime, however, the problem to be decided is the nature of the material it shall contain. There is obviously plenty of room for a comprehensive collection fairly representative of the "spirit of 1938."

It requires a good deal of imagination to assist a choice of general theme that might convey to the inhabitants of the earth in 6938 a reliable conception of what their ancestors were thinking and doing in 1938. A few pictures of present-day human beings, of course, would prove we had not begun to sprout wings, but that we had, for example, markings similar to the physiognomy of those whom we now allude to as the ancients. We shall have to leave it to the 6938-ers to think what they like about us from the assortment of reading matter which no doubt will get a "reserved seat" in the capsule.

Incidentally, it would not be much good suggesting to a 6938 editor that Mussolini tried to copy the great Caesar, because if another World's Fair "capsule" shall be buried in 2938, he of the protruding chin of 1938 will not be mentioned. This goes for Hitler, too.

Another Shock

FROM A LONDON HISTORIAN COMES the announcement that the art of handwriting has been on a steady decline for 400 years and may become a lost art any time now—with just no handwriting at all.

We may steadfastly refuse to be ruffled by this intelligence, but how, we may ask, is the curious person to know what kind of character he has, if he has no handwriting to study? Who will work for a diploma without any Spencerian-curlicues? How is a man to recognize the handwriting on the wall if there is to be none?

It looks as if things were getting out of hand. The only compensation is that the art of making squiggles (doodling, we think, is the classic name for this "art") on telephone pads is on the upgrade; and this may open up fields of experience of which the mere art of handwriting never even heard rumors.

Thirteen British generals have just been retired in one day. A move like that in Mexico would cut a squadron in half.

The Japanese believe that climbing Mount Fuji brings good luck. The Chinese feel the same way about the Japanese climbing it and staying there.

A MATTER OF FIGURES

From Vancouver Sun
Vancouver's deplorable showing in the tourist business is a matter of figures.

This is a good tourist year—but not for Vancouver, compared with Victoria. In the first seven months of 1937, 57,797 autos with 179,886 passengers came to Vancouver from the United States. In the same period this year, 62,358 autos with 202,109 passengers came north. This means that 7.89 per cent more cars and 12.35 more passengers visited Vancouver this year.

Victoria has a live tourist program. In the first six months of 1937, 3,384 autos and 8,775 passengers came to Victoria from the United States. In the first six months of 1938, 6,910 autos and 15,602 passengers arrived. This means that 104.20 per cent more cars and 77.80 per cent more people visited Victoria this year.

Sonja Henie at Home

From a Traveling Correspondent
OSLO, Norway.

THE OTHER NIGHT we wandered into the Paladestret, which is a motion picture house featuring newsreels, and the chief attraction was a series of scenes showing the triumphant return of Sonja Henie from America to Paris and then to her home town of Oslo.

The most interested spectator of the homecoming of Sonja was Sonja.

She sat in the little theatre flanked by a bodyguard of three tittering girls. And when it became known that the great Sonja in person had honored the house with her presence there was the least bit of fluttering and stirring and a craning of necks.

This was unusual, for the Norwegians are an unemotional people, not easily given to a show of love or loathing. For example, at the beginning of this newsreel program there were the usual shots of Hitler reviewing the usual goosestepping battalions. The spectators sat quietly, though they hate and fear Hitler, while in the average theatre in New York the customers would have burst into a chorus of hisses and boos, perhaps accompanied by a few furtive heels.

A MATTER OF CONTRAST

When the program ended and the audience filed out, some of the more bold, including us, followed Sonja at a decent distance. No one asked for an autograph and no hysterical men or women ripped off her fur jacket, her hat or her famous and dexterous legs to haul home as a souvenir.

I had hoped to approach Sonja and perhaps be favored with one of her $100.00 screen smiles. But I fell into the folkways of the fjords and did not shoot at her with either camera or question.

And in a moment she vanished into a big and black limousine and was carted off to her residence at West Fjord, some two hours' trip by steamboat from here. There, I understand, she is building a new home so crammed with Hollywood gadgets that the local craftsmen stand around and tear out their hair in bewildered handfuls.

I can report in all honesty that the great Sonja receives more outward and visible homage than the King of Norway himself.

For we have moved to the Pensionat Hay, at Furbakken, which is in a suburb of Oslo, called Bygdø, which is the site of the King's summer place. In fact, we lucky residents of the Pensionat Hay drink milk supplied by cows in his Majesty's model dairy farm and are growing fat on the milk of royal kindness.

The King strolls the public paths adjoining our grounds, and Queen Maud goes riding through the woods, and no one follows them, or gawks, but gives a brief and modest bow, and King and commoner each goes his way.

Yesterday we attended services at the King's church, Bygdø Kappel, a small but strikingly beautiful edifice set high on a hill under the pines. The King came late to the Lutheran services, attended by a lone cavalier, for the Queen, an English princess, goes to the shrine of her own faith in Oslo.

Tall and gaunt, is Haakon VII, dressed in a civilian suit, and his entrance through the King's private door, and his sitting down in the front pew caused no more commotion than if he had been a bank clerk or a retailer of lutefish.

COURTING DISAPPOINTMENT

From Winnipeg Free Press

The present attempt to get Canadians steamed up on ambitious schemes of assisted land settlement has practically no chance of success. The idea seems to be that if a strong sentiment could be created in favor of such a policy, the governments might be persuaded to get behind it. The latest evidence of the feeling in responsible quarters in Great Britain is against this supposition. And in Canada, there is, also, a lack of faith in the possibilities of assisted settlement. None of the schemes of the past have been successful.

Premier King and Mr. Crerar, Minister of Immigration and Colonization, are to be interviewed also by the promoters of this policy, it is reported. They may point out, in reply to Sir Henry Page Croft's appeal to Canadians to "once more make possible the open gate to British settlement," that the gate is wide open to people from Great Britain to come here and settle on the land or take advantage of other opportunities if they have the means to support themselves and become established.

Sir Henry asserts that Great Britain "can make a gift to Canada of hundreds of thousands of fine citizens who can come under the plan we have in mind, and who can make a success." How many of these would be from Britain's agricultural population, when so much assistance is being given to British agriculture and when food production is being stimulated as a feature of defence policy? And the suggestion that such a plan would be largely successful is contrary to all past experience.

We want people from Great Britain, and there was a laudable purpose in the advocacy of emigration from Britain to the Dominions in order to strengthen the Commonwealth, but that has been made doubtful now by the new conditions that are influencing opinion in Britain.

In more normal times, however, we must believe that the inevitable economic expansion of Canada will provide the opportunities that will attract considerable numbers from Britain, Scandinavia, the United States and some other countries, those people coming on their own resources—except perhaps for cheap passage from Britain—to establish themselves with their own efforts. A young, developing country always has something to offer to people of an independent and energetic type in the older countries.

Correct this sentence: "She begged me to invest her money as I thought best," said the friend, "and she won't blame me if I lose it."

YOUNG CITIZENS AGAIN

To the Editor:—I notice that after a long rest the Young Citizens' League has again decided to do battle. There has been, from the unemployed, "such a determination to undermine general respect for law and to bring our police into disrepute," that they just can't hold themselves any longer.

The people should be overjoyed to know that the Y.C.L., acting as a sort of self-appointed Royal Commission, are about to enlighten them regarding acts "subversive of constituted authority." Let us hope that in their new crusade in the name of liberty they may be better supplied with munitions should they meet their old foe "Missourian."

If the Y.C.L. could stop worrying about a threat to the people's freedom by a few unarmed, penniless individuals, and get their own thinking straightened out, they would conclude that the real "menace" to liberty comes from the right, not the left. For example, Section 98, Padlock Law, etc. M. E. BIRD.

Patricia Bay.

YOUNGEST SOLDIERS

To the Editor:—Having read in your paper recently one or two letters as to the youngest soldiers from B.C. who served in the Great War, I think my son, Hector R. MacDonald, may claim to be one of them. Having been born May 29, 1900, he enlisted as a bugler in the 50th Gordon Highlanders in January, 1915. He left Victoria with the 88th Fusiliers, having his 15th birthday in Ottawa on his way overseas. Went to France with the Army Service Corp with transports. Transferred to 72nd Seaforth Highlanders and served in the trenches, where he was gassed, then returned to England as under a year. Transferred to C.A.M.C., where he took up remedial training. Attained the rank of sergeant on the staff at Canadian convalescent camp at Woodcote Park, Epsom, Surrey, England. Returned to Victoria in January, 1919. Surely a good record! M. E. MACDONALD.

West Arm, Shawnigan Lake.

A ROBIN'S BROKEN LEG

To the Editor:—During a recent blow a robin's nest in a tree on our parkway was nearly destroyed. The next morning a robin large enough to fly, a string wrapped around its leg. It tied for hours to help itself. I could do nothing except hope that some kind-hearted human being would respond to my numerous calls. I tried various persons and they refused to be bothered. During the noon hour my husband was able to send a man with ladders. It was too late; little robin's leg was broken and it was too far gone to be saved. I am sure I shall never hear the lovely song of the first spring robin without thinking of the one that tried so hard to help itself while human beings thought the life of a song bird was not worth while. (MRS.) EDE SMITH.

STAY-AT-HOMES

To the Editor:—Many people lament their lack of money for travel, especially nowadays. Yet Socrates, second most influential man so far, never set foot outside of Athens except for a few expeditions as a soldier, and Kant, greatest modern philosopher, never traveled 40 miles from his birthplace all his life. CARL PETERSON.

EXCUSE, PLIZZ

To the Editor:—Japan still seems to live up to her reputation as a consistent imitator. The other day one of her leaders replied to the question of an inquiring reporter as to what Japan attributed her success over the Chinese (in Japanese, of course: "We jes kills 'em."

G. W. ROUTLEY.

Jenny Morris Has Kisses for "Boys"

SASKATOON (CP) — Jenny Morris, "big sister" of the Princess Pats, arrived here last night for a two-day stay during which the men she befriended in London during the Great War will endeavor to give her an "intimate view" of western Canada, including various harvesting operations, such as threshing. Stepping off the train, Miss Morris displayed no hesitation in calling the veterans who had assembled to greet her by their first names. "Hello Percy, it's nice to see you again," she said to P. C. Klaehn, and she terminated every greeting with an affectionate hug and kiss, and the men were not in the least embarrassed. "Yes," she remarked, "one of the boys en route asked me if I was ever going to run out of kisses." Miss Morris was surprised at the Dominion's size. "I traveled 48 hours from Toronto on a fast train and here I am only half way across Canada." Her westernmost destination is Victoria. Today she was taken through Saskatoon and the surrounding districts and at 6:30 will be the guest of honor at a banquet. Tomorrow she will attend a garden party at the home of Klaehn and that evening will leave for Edmonton.

Many New Patients In Solarium

The report of Dr. Glenn Simpson, medical superintendent of the Queen Alexandra Solarium, for August shows: Admissions during August 11, discharges 5, patients in Solarium 59, patients in Jubilee Hospital 4, consultations 19, X-rays 22, laboratory examinations 81, casts 2, reinforcements 2, and exercises 794. The health of all the children has been excellent, and the admissions for the month of August were exceptionally high.

NEW YORK DEATH

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. S. Stanwood — Menken — socially prominent art patron and star of New York's Beaux Arts balls of the last decade, died yesterday. Her husband, an attorney, and her son, Arthur, a newspaper photographer, were at her bedside.

Dancing Studio Will Open Here On September 7

A new dancing studio, devoted exclusively to the teaching of ballroom dancing, is to be opened in Victoria on September 7, at 1010 Langley Street, by Josephine Brydes and Ronald Bladen. Josephine Brydes, who has a very successful record as a dancing instructor in the United States, has had the advantage of association with some of the leading dancing masters of the western states, and has studied under B. M. Crane, who is widely known for his proficiency. Ronald Bladen is a capable and versatile dancer who is in command of modern dancing. He has been an instructor in Vancouver, where he studied under Lila More.

Two of last Saturday's bevy of bridal couples are shown above. Left, is Mr. and Mrs. Edward May, the former Miss Elhel Charlotte McQuitty, who were married in St. Stephen's Church, Mount Newton, and right, is Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lambier, the former Helen Lindsay Neil, who were married at the First United Church.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Miss Muriel W. Chave, B.A., left on Wednesday afternoon for Fernie, where she has accepted a position on the staff of the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rankin are spending a few weeks in Vancouver as the guests of Mrs. Rankin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bell Irving.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Duggleby of Davenport, Iowa, who have been the guests of Captain and Mrs. W. Ellis, Beach Drive, have left for their home.

Mr. Fred McCague, who has been spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCague, Graham Street, has returned to Smithers, B.C., where he is on the school teaching staff.

Mrs. W. R. Gunn and young daughter, who have been visiting Mrs. Ed. Thompson, are today leaving for Youngstown, Ohio, where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Pabst.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest S. Wood and their daughter, Beverly Joyce, of Santa Barbara, California, are visiting Mrs. Wood's mother, Mrs. M. James, 1334 Pembroke Street.

Miss Thelma Sharpe has returned to her home in Kamloops after spending two weeks' vacation with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. Sharpe, Kelseyfield Road.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Carter, 1773 Fairfield Road, announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Phyllis Mary, to Mr. Stephen John Bingham, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bingham of Vancouver. The wedding will take place quietly on September 17.

Friends of Florence Gunn, soprano, will be interested to know that she was guest artist at Massey Hall, Toronto, recently. The speakers were Mayor Day, Brig. W. H. P. Elkins, Dr. H. J. Cody, rector of Toronto University, Hon. P. M. Dewar, the affair being held in commemoration of Sir Stanislaus Gzowski, K.C., M.P., 1813 to 1898. Others speaking were consuls and ambassadors from different parts of the globe.

Miss Margaret Harris, who is to be married tomorrow to Mr. Jack Akins, was the guest of honor at a kitchen shower given by Miss Dolores Pettingell, Powell Street, last evening. Gladioli and asters, in shades of pink and white effectively decorated the rooms. As Miss Harris entered the living-room her hostess presented her with a corsage bouquet of gladioli. In and around a huge pink slipper trimmed with blue, the many gifts for the bride-to-be's kitchen were heaped. An interesting guessing contest was much enjoyed, following which a buffet supper was served. The lace-covered table was centred with a green Franciscanware bowl containing pink and mauve asters and flower lights. The guests were Mrs. Walter Harris, Mrs. B. C. Pettingell, Mrs. H. A. Good-hew, Mrs. Finlayson, Mrs. H. W. Wilders, Mrs. F. S. Martin and Misses Muriel Palfry, Alice Dawson, Joan Chipper, Eleanor Moffat, Hilda Gillam, Catherine Davey, Thelma Speed, Alice Chaney, Audrey Bland, Marie Costello and Jewel Pettingell.

WEDDINGS
EWING-BERNARD
At St. Matthias Church, pretty arranged with pastel flowers for the occasion, the wedding took place at 9 last evening of Eileen Sheila, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Bernard of Parksville, and Glasgow Street, Victoria, and Mr. David Reid Ewing, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ewing, Rutledge Street. Rev. Alan Gardner officiated at the service, and Mrs. W. Gilbert presided at the organ.
Mr. Bernard gave his daughter in marriage. She was a pretty figure in her princess gown of ivory satin, with insets of lace in the skirt, deep yoke and Medici collar of lace, and long, tight satin sleeves. Her long tulle veil hung from a cap outlined with pearl lustrous orange blossoms and fell to form a train. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses, swansong, heather and white carnations.
Mrs. Richard Wakeham, sister of the bride, was matron of honor in sunlight yellow lace, with a matching bolero of taffeta, with full sleeves and wide revers, and a wide-brimmed taffeta hat with a braided crown and caught over the forehead with a cluster of vari-hued flowers.
Miss Noel Mawhinney, in pale green embroidered net and marquisette, and Miss Doreen Mills, in mauve, were bridesmaids in full-length frocks worn with taffeta boleros edged with knife-pleating. Their bo-peep bonnets matched their frocks and were tied beneath the chin with ribbons, clustered with forget-me-nots, and in their lace-mittened hands they carried arm bouquets of gladioli and asters.
Little Jean Carter, the bridegroom's niece, was a dainty flower-girl in a pink Kate Greenaway frock of ruffled net, with a pink satin sash. She wore a floral bandeau and carried a Victorian posy of roses and carnations. Mr. Noel Morgan was best man, and the ushers were Mr. John Ewing, brother of the bridegroom, and Mr. William O'Connor.
After the ceremony a reception was held in the church hall, which was decorated with flowers in profusion. The supper table was centred with the bride's cake between silver baskets of flowers. Mrs. Bernard wore a navy blue sheer redingote over a floral dress, and navy accessories, and Mrs. J. Ewing was in a frock of midnight blue sheer with matching accessories. They wore corsage bouquets of roses.
After a honeymoon in Vancouver and the Sound cities, Mr. and Mrs. Ewing will make their home at 1010 Empress Avenue. For traveling the bride chose a brown dress and accessories, and a fawn polo coat, with a corsage bouquet of Talisman roses and gerbera.
Mr. G. E. Bernard, the bride's brother, and his wife and little daughter, Madeline, Duncan, were out-of-town guests.
Among the gifts was an electric toaster from the former associates of the bride at the Plaza Theatre, and a set of pyrex dishes from the fellow employees of the bridegroom at the City Hall Standard Oil station.
HUMPHREY-PEACEY
At Nanaimo, this afternoon at 1.30 Rev. W. P. Bunt of Nanaimo united in marriage Lois Ruth, only daughter of Mr. A. H. Peacey, Fairfield Road, and Mr. John Humphrey of Vancouver at a quiet ceremony, with Mr. and Mrs. E. Breckenridge of Nanaimo as witnesses.
Following the marriage service a wedding breakfast was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Breckenridge, and later Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey left for Vancouver, where they will make their home. For a number of years the bride has been principal of the public school at Langford and prior to her marriage was the honored guest at many social functions held in Langford district and in Victoria.
MACKEY-BURROWS
At the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. C. D. Clarke, 561 Raynor Avenue, the marriage of Marjorie Gertrude (Peggy), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Burrows of 624 Raynor Avenue and Mr. Harry Mackey, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Mackey of 2329 Howard Street, was quietly solemnized this afternoon at 2 o'clock.
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was unattended. She wore a smart tailored suit in black and white pin stripe, with a white satin blouse and hat and other accessories in black, while her corsage bouquet was of red carnations.
Following the marriage service a reception for relatives was held at the home of the bride's parents, where a two-tier wedding cake centred the breakfast table. Among the many wedding gifts was an automatic toaster from the bridegroom's associates at the Shawinigan Lake Lumber Company, Shawinigan Lake.
Mr. and Mrs. Mackey left on the afternoon boat for Seattle to spend their honeymoon in Washington State and on their return to Victoria, for a time will make their home at 624 Raynor Avenue.

Chapter Resumes Its Meetings

Satisfaction was expressed by the members of the Sir James and Lady Douglas Chapter, I.O. D.E., when the results of the garden party and Heather Day were read to them yesterday by Miss Lee, who gave the treasurer's report in the absence of Mrs. J. B. Shaw.

The financial help will enable the chapter to meet obligations and extend their work. The regent, Mrs. A. S. Christie, presided, and after the opening of the meeting yesterday the members stood in silent tribute to the memory of Mrs. J. D. Gordon's son, who died recently in England. Thanks to Miss Terry for the use of her store and Mrs. Pillar for the use of her home for Heather Day and the garden party were tendered by the chapter, also to Madame Griffaton, Frank Bantly, the Florence Clough and Russian schools of dancing for their excellent program.

Mrs. Pottinger was thanked for convening Heather Day. The secretary, Mrs. Bertha Parsons, read a letter from Mayor McGavin thanking the chapter for the Heather Day sent to him on Heather Day. A request for the use of a typewriter for a needy high school student was left in the hands of Mrs. Christie.

Mrs. C. V. Milton and Miss Ada Craddock were proposed as new members. Mrs. Pottinger, educational secretary, read a letter from the national secretary.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the members of the executive. Mrs. McKicking congratulated the members, Mrs. Colin Cummins, past regent, and all the helpers on the fine success of Heather Day.

Miss Crease and Miss McMullin will be the hostesses for the meeting in October.

LETHBRIDGE, Alta. (CP) — Thomas William Randle, 73, native of England, who enlisted with the Northwest Mounted Police in 1888 and later had a cattle ranch along the Montana border of southeastern Alberta, died here yesterday.

Social and Personal

Miss Ella Ferguson, who has been spending her summer holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferguson, Linden Avenue, has left for Quesnel to resume her teaching duties.

Miss Wynne Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Shaw, Zela Street, Oak Bay, has returned from Seattle, where she has been spending a couple of weeks with friends.

Miss Edith Hill-Tout, R.N., of the nursing staff of the Vancouver General Hospital, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hill-Tout, 1115 Collinson Street. Their son, Mr. Edward Hill-Tout, left yesterday afternoon for Pelly, B.C., to take charge of the public school there.

Mr. Gerald Ringwood left on Tuesday for Victoria en route to his home at Trail after spending a holiday at Ganges Harbor.

Mrs. V. Henn of Ganges Harbor left for Victoria on Thursday on a visit to friends.

A sale of tea, arranged by the members of St. Mary's Church Guild at Fulford Harbor on Tuesday afternoon in the grounds of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Shaw, was well attended. The sum of $65 was taken in, and it is expected about $59 will be cleared for the funds.

Modern Etiquette
By ROBERTA LEE

1. Is it good manners to take out your wrath on the telephone caller when he gets you as a "wrong number?"

2. Whose place is it to end a telephone conversation?

3. If someone telephones you when you are in the midst of something urgent, is it all right to excuse yourself and call back later?

4. When someone calls an absent member of the family is it better to say, "Who is it?" or, "Would you care to leave your number?"

5. When you have answered a telephone call for another person, is it good manners to listen until he answers on his extension?

Answers

1. No.

2. The one who puts in the call.

3. Certainly.

4. The latter.

5. Of course, otherwise the connection would probably be broken.

Timber Party Leaves Island

Importers in Vancouver
Today After Three-day Trip Through Mills

Timber Importers from the United Kingdom, who have been touring Vancouver Island, left for Vancouver on the midnight boat homeward bound after spending three days in the woods and lumber mills of Vancouver Island.

The 60 timber men from England, Scotland, Ireland and France arrived in Victoria shortly before 7 last night in the two Coach Lines buses which had carried them as far as Port Alberni. A white provincial police patrol car, piloted by Constable W. A. Jaffray, led the caravan.

The group left Qualicum, where it had been billeted at the Qualicum Beach, Morgan and Ben Bow hotels, early yesterday morning and traveled to Chemainus to inspect the Victoria Lumber and Manufacturing Company's mill, largest on the island, and second largest in the province. The internal transportation arrangements of the plant and the enormous dry storage shed with a floor area of 88,000 square feet drew the most comment from the visitors. At the time of the visit 30,000,000 board feet of lumber were stored in the plant.

The timber men lunched at the Horseshoe Bay Inn, Chemainus, after a cocktail party given by the management of the mill.

SEE SWEDISH PLANT

In the afternoon they went on to the Hillcrest Lumber Company's mill on the Cowichan Lake Road, where the small Swedish mill, only one of its type on the island, drew special attention.
The greater part of the output of the Swedish mill goes to the British market.

After visiting the mill the party was entertained at tea on the lawn of the home of Carlton
Stone, manager of the Hillcrest Company, outside Duncan. Several of the timber men stayed off for supper there for an informal discussion of their requirements with Mr. Stone.

On its arrival in Victoria the party joined a number of island lumber men at a private dinner in the Empress Hotel.

A big timber dinner has been arranged for tonight in Vancouver, with Hon. A. Wells Gray representing the provincial government.

The party will stop off briefly at Banff on the homeward trip.

THOUSAND HEAD OF CATTLE AT SHOW

Heaviest List of Entries for Victoria Fair in 77 Years

One thousand head of livestock will be housed in the barns at the Willows during fair week, making the heaviest list of entries in the 77 years' history of the B.C. Agricultural Association, it was announced today by W. H.
Mearns, secretary of the B.C.
Agricultural Association.

In addition to the 401 head of cattle and 103 head of heavy draught horses, there will be 362 sheep and 111 swine. The sheep classes have the second largest entry list to the cattle.

The McRae Farms are exhibiting in a noncompetitive class a fine string of Black Face sheep.
Large competitive entries have been sent in by the C.P.R. department of natural resources, the A.C.T. Stock Farm Ltd. and many Saanich and island breeders.

Those entered are as follows:
South Downs, Whitney-Griffiths Farms, J. A. Higginson & Son, R.
B. Hunter, Harry Whiting and E. A. Gamble; Shropshires, Whitney-Griffiths Bros., R. B. Hunter,
H. E. Talbot and E. A. Gamble;
Oxford Downs, McClughan Bros.,
S. Crossman and Lloyd H. Shannon; Dorset, H. O. R. N. S., Charles Turner and McRae Farms Ltd.; Suffolk, Charles Turner, C.P.R.
department of natural resources,
A.C.T. Stock Farm Ltd., Harry Whiting, Irene Talbot, R. C. Sibbald and Douglas R. Piggo; Hampshires, Charles Turner, C.P.R. department of natural resources,
Harry Whiting and Irene Talbot; Kerry Hill, Edward J. T.
Woodward, Charles Eccleston and
H. H. B. Abbott; Ramboulliers,
H. E. Talbot; and Cheviots, R. C.
Sibbald, R. A. Ingram and D. S.
Blacklock.

In the swine class there are entered 21 Tamworths, 30 Berkshires and 60 Yorkshires. H. M.
Clark is exhibiting all the Tam-worths, while R. A. Coleman and Edward Woodward are the exhibitors in the Berkshire class.

The Yorkshire entries are from
R. A. Coleman, McClughan Bros., Edward Woodward, McRae Farms
Ltd., A. C. Weir and Thomas Klinkhamer.

Not all grasshoppers can sing, but nearly 200 of the species in this country are singers.

SETTLEMENT PLAN CALLED AMBITIOUS

Settlement of 10,000 families in British Columbia under a supervised immigration plan was described by Herbert Anscomb, M.P.P., last night as "a little too ambitious."

Speaking to Ward Five Conservative Association, he said that while the national Conservative convention had favored proposals for immigration of selected British families he thought the suggestion of Sir Henry Page Croft for a 10,000 family scheme would create a serious problem for the province. It would mean an additional 30,000 population.

Besides a review of the party's federal convention, Mr. Anscomb touched on the forestry problem, declaring it was urgent something be done to replant the logged and fire-wasted areas.

Delegates elected by the association to attend the Kamloops provincial convention on September 23 and 24 were: Miss Alice White, Mrs. F. A. Willis, Mrs. D.
W. Adam, Mrs. Hubert Lethaby,
F. Dale Johnson, Hubert Lethaby, F. J. Popham, William Warner and Stephen Kelway, with Mrs. R. F. Green, W. Paget and C. Bridgen as alternates.

AMBULANCE FOR CHINA ON ITS WAY

Has Been Shipped From Oshawa and Will Be Fully Equipped Here

There is considerable excitement these days among the Chinese citizens of Victoria, as the ambulance for which they raised $1,500 is now on its way to Victoria from Oshawa, Ont. It will be fully outfitted before being sent to China.

The accounts of the appalling and ever-increasing need for medical aid of all sorts published in such papers as the North China Herald make bitter reading to the freedom-loving peoples of the world. Dr. Yen Fu-ching, director of the Chinese National Health Administration and former director of the Shanghai Red Cross hospital, states that China itself is doing nothing short of miraculous work in trying to meet a problem which is of a gigantic scale.

It is with the idea of giving every one in Victoria a chance to do something to lighten this burden of human suffering that the Victoria branch of the Canadian Friends of the Chinese People has planned its present campaign. It is hoped that funds will be raised quickly to send another "bought-in-Canada" motor ambulance, and every effort will be made by the executive committee to keep the overhead expenses to the minimum. Volunteer assistance is being used entirely.

Any contributions, no matter how small, will be appreciated and may be sent to the honorary treasurer, Mrs. C. H. Rutherford, 1227 Beach Drive.

KINSMEN CLUB

Herbert Sabiston, president of the Victoria Kinsmen Club, presided over the opening meeting of the fall sessions of the club in Spencer's dining room last evening. Twenty-five members were present.

Reports on the national convention of Kinsmen Clubs held recently at Winnipeg, were heard from Donald McIntosh and William Passmore.

Present at the convention were 450 delegates representing 22 clubs from Victoria to St. John, N.B. Dr. "Rich" Richards, prominent physician in the east, from Coburg, Ontario, was elected national president for 1939. Next year's convention will be held in St. John, N.B.

During the dinner meeting the club was invited to attend a meeting at Courtenay soon, when the charter will be presented to the Kinsmen Club of that city.

It was announced that the annual fishing competition of the club will be held on Sunday, September 25, at Cowichan Bay.

Carillon bells to be installed in the 400-foot Tower of the Sun at the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition, will weigh 20 tons, while equipment and frame will bring the total weight to 34 tons.

Geologists Report on Yukon Placers

OTTAWA—Placer gold mining in the unglaciated areas of the Yukon shows promise of continuing as an important industry for at least another 50 years, H. S.
Bostock advises in his report on the mining industry of the Yukon, 1937 (No. 2450), issued by the geological survey division, Department of Mines and Resources.
The Klondike district, chief Canadian source of placer gold, and the main field in the unglaciated area, alone contains sufficient proved reserves to keep most of the dredges now operating or under construction in operation for more than 15 years.

Development along modern engineering lines is showing that the Klondike contains much larger reserves of placer gravels than was formerly regarded as probable, and large areas of probable and possible gravels still remain to be tested. Total placer gold production in the Yukon in 1937 was 58,348 fine ounces, valued at $2,042,000, and the total value of all mineral production from the territory to the end of 1937 is $215,544,000, of which

$192,500,000 represents the value of gold production.

Yukon Consolidated Gold Corporation, which holds practically all of the known placer reserves in the Klondike district, has well-in excess of 100,000,000 cubic yards of proved gravels, believed to contain $43,181,200 in gold.
From 1933 to 1937 inclusive, more than 24,000,000 cubic yards have been dredged by the company.
Since 1932 its five dredges have been reconducted, five other dredges have been built or projected, a new unit in the hydroelectric power plant has been installed, many miles of canal, supplying water to the plant have been built, power lines have been reconstructed, and large stripping and thawing plants, with miles of ditches have been built, and camps and workshops have been erected. During 1937 the corporation continued to expand its operations, and altogether spent approximately $2,200,000.

The resumption of larger-scale shipping of silver-lead concentrates and ore from Mayo was the most important mining event of the year in the Yukon. During the summer of 1937 a total of 9,080 tons of concentrates and ore were shipped to the smelters by Treadwell Yukon Corporation and other operators in the district.

This was exceeded only in 1930, when a total of 9,740 tons were shipped. Production from the mines at Galena Hill continued steadily throughout the year, and a large tonnage of ore was treated in Treadwell Yukon's mill at its Elsa Mine. At its Silver King Mine the company extended the 100-foot level on its south vein and blocked out a large tonnage above the 200-foot level.

Exploratory work done in the Carmacks district during 1937 has proved the presence of a large number of quartz veins carrying gold over a considerable area, although as yet the task of proving whether these veins carry workable ore bodies has not been seriously attempted.

MILK CASEIN TURNED INTO WOOL

WASHINGTON—Two Repartiment of Agriculture chemists have devised a method for making a wool-like fibre from casein, a component of skim milk, it is announced here.

Somewhat similar to an Italian method by which a wool-like fibre has been made for the last three years, the process is being patented under the public service patent law.

Discoverers of the process are Stephen P. Gould and Earl O.
Whittier, both of the Bureau of Dairy Industry.

To make the fibre, casein is softened in water and dissolved in caustic alkali. It becomes a thick, sticky mass, which is carefully worked into the proper consistency by aging, addition of modifying agents and dilution.
The mass is then forced through multiple spinnerets of the kind used in making rayon. The fibres are separated and hardened in an acid bath containing formaldehyde and modifiers.

Synthetic fibre produced in this manner has a chemical composition almost identical with wool except for a lower sulphur content, it is claimed. The fibre, it is also declared, is faintly yellow in color and resembles washed and carded Merino wool, the finest size marketed.

The casein fibre has the characteristic fine kink of natural wool and may be blended readily with natural wool. It has an advantage over kinky fibres made from plant materials in that it takes wool dyes.

Because the fibres are smooth rather than scaly, it cannot be felt. It does not shrink as much as natural wool, it is declared.

Similarity of manufacture to the rayon manufacturing process leads the two chemists to believe that its manufacture can be readily carried out in rayon plants by the substitution of casein for cellulose and of different chemical reagents. The two chemists believe it can be produced for 50 cents a pound, approximately the same price as rayon.

Casein is already used for the manufacture of a wide variety of plastic products, such as billiard balls, and for paper coating.
Despite the possibility of expanding the market for casein, which comprises 3 per cent of skim milk, bureau scientists do not believe production of milk for its casein content alone would be profitable.

25 Years Ago

September 2, 1913

(From the Times Files)
The police court was more like a civil court Saturday than a place where criminal justice is meted out. Leases, indentures, surrenders, assignments, bills of sale and affidavits littered the desks of magistrates and counsel and formed the subject of evidence and argument.

The healthy character of Victoria is shown in the fact that only 36 burials took place in August at Ross Bay Cemetery.

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, the president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, will make a trip to the coast this month.

Victoria athletes made a clean sweep of the open events of the annual track and field meet of the Sidney Amateur Athletic Association, held on Saturday afternoon. Members of the J.B.A.A., particularly Hal Beasley, copied the medals for the sprints, while the Capital City relay team scored an easy victory in the team event.

HELLO IN "L.A."—GOODBYE IN AFRICA—Distances are strictly comparative for Sir Hubert Wilkins, famed explorer, and Lady Suzanne Wilkins. They're pictured in Los Angeles before sailing for Melbourne, Australia, where they will tranship for South Africa, Sir Hubert proceeding from there to the Antarctic with the Lincoln Ellsworth expedition, and Lady Suzanne returning to New York.

Railway Traffic

REVENUE FREIGHT loaded at Canadian railway stations and received from foreign connections during May amounted to 3,925,077 tons, as against 6,618,091 tons in May, 1937, and 5,890,938 tons in May, 1936. Compared with May, 1937, traffic, wheat was lighter by 76,418 tons but increases in corn of 79,314 tons, oats of 64,501, barley of 48,552, and smaller increases in several other commodities raised the total of agricultural products to 1,117,173 tons as against 969,293 last year. Animal products declined by 11,747 tons and mine products by 88,285, mainly through a decrease of 170,908 tons in bituminous coal, copper ore and concentrates amounted to 117,032 tons as against 1,992 in 1937.

OPERATING REVENUES

Gross revenues of Canadian railways for May decreased from $29,256,948 in 1937 to $25,444,754, a decrease of $3,812,194, or 13 per cent. Operating expenses were reduced from $25,198,939 to $24,185,896 and the operating income was reduced from $2,899,284 to $95,638. Freight traffic was lighter than last year by 14.5 per cent and passenger traffic also declined by 11.3 per cent. The total payroll increased by $241,173, or 1.5 per cent, and the number of employees declined from 130,485 to 123,576.

For January May, gross revenues declined from $137,257,460 in 1937 to $124,240,116, operating expenses increased from $119,116,318 to $121,115,695, and the operating income was reduced from $12,458,971 to a debit of $2,736,628, or by $15,197,599. Canadian National lines earned $12,034,946 in May as against $13,812,894 in May last year, and the net operating income was reduced from $614,813 to a debit of $733,900, or by $1,348,713.

Gross revenues for the C.P.R. for May were reduced by $1,211,822, or from $11,870,381 in 1937 to $10,658,559, operating expenses were reduced from $9,901,480 to $9,777,059, and the operating income was reduced from $1,574,219 to $422,118.

A number of states now have food-plant nurseries, where they start trees and other plants that provide nuts, fruits and berries for birds and animals to eat.

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

SOME BASEBALL pitchers have so much stuff that they can give their pitches away and still be effective.

Others have to correct tell-tale faults before they know what it is to not have their ears pinned back.

Mervin Shea points out that Lefty Gomez's wrist is bent away over when he throws his curve, and that it is perfectly straight for his fast one. Shea says that he has advised the Castilian of this repeatedly, but that Gomez goes on his winning way with the opposition having a fair idea of just what is to be served.

Shea, veteran catcher who this year switched from the Chicago White Sox to Brooklyn, specializes in calling pitches. Del Baker, the new Detroit manager, and Art Fletcher, who coaches at third base for the New York Yankees, are sharp-eyed in this respect. They also are skillful detectors of signs.

Shea says that Mel Harder presses his hands together tightly when about to throw his curve, and is loose for the hard one.

He tells how Jimmy DeShong formerly always came to a pause with hands above his belt when about to manufacture a curve, and would drop his hands below his belt when he was going to deliver a fast ball.

When Shea signed with the White Sox some years back, Geo. Pipgras, now an American League umpire, had a perfect record against that club. But Shea found that with runners on base Pipgras spread both arms above his head for his fast one and locked his arms above his head for his curve. Pipgras was belted from the hillcock the next three of four times that he faced the Pale Horse.

"A player who went from our club to his tipped him off the following season," relates Shea. "Otherwise, he undoubtedly would have gone on pitching like that, and we would have continued pelting him."

Some pitchers simply can't correct mound mannerisms and habits that tip off the enemy.

Urban Faber, for example, swallowed when faking a spitter... did not swallow when he actually had decorated the polt. Everybody knew it, including Faber, but the redhead had so much, with or without saliva, that he could spot rivals advance information.

Shea asserts that only a few pitchers are successful in concealing their deliveries.

He insists that in time he could call the pitches of 50 per cent of the pitchers in baseball.

"You would think that pitchers advertising their wares would get wise and try to cross batters," he explains. "No batter wants to take a sign after he's been crossed. But Gomez, Harder, and some more do the same things all the time."

Shea finds the National League a more difficult field for sleuthing than the American. Most of the dugouts in the older league are too far back for the good of his line of work.

But Shea has made interesting discoveries just the same. Three Pittsburgh pitchers reveal their hands, it seems, which may account for their difficulties against the Dodgers.

Shea came by his study of pitchers naturally. As a catcher, it was only natural for him to train his optics on hurlers. A reserve receiver throughout his entire major league life, he had plenty of time to observe.

Merv Shea should be an object lesson for second-string catchers. He has shown them how to make themselves useful and how to remain in the big show for years... simply by keeping the eyes open.

Soccer Champs Held to 2 to 2 Draw By St. Saviours in Cup Final

VANCOUVER — Vancouver's St. Saviour's soccer eleven came near pulling an upset here last night when they held North Shore United, Dominion champions, to a 2 to 2 tie in the final game of the Province Cup competition. The replay will be Wednesday night.

St. Saviours had command of play through the first half, scoring their counters in the last 10 minutes of the period. Murray West netting one and Jack Waugh the other.

United showed their old spark in the second half with McManus counting both goals.

The Vancouver team gave Rabbit many anxious moments, but were unable to get past him in the first part of the game. Tommy Newman, playing his first senior match, was the first serious threat to the North Shore goalie when he drove in a hard one from only a few feet out. The North Shore net minder managed to save, however.

Moffatt grazed the outside of the post with another hard one when Cummings slipped while checking him.

SCORES FROM PENALTY

West's goal came about 10 minutes from the rest period when he drove a penalty shot past Rabbit after Wolfe had shouldered Newman.

Just before the end of the frame Waugh headed in a shot from Greenwell to put St. Saviours two up.

Dan Kulai, in the Saints' goalie, made the best play of the night when he saved a penalty shot from Jimmy Spencer, who came in for the rebound, but again failed to count. Kulai clearing the leather.

A mixup in front of the St. Saviour's goal mouth resulted in North Shore's first counter, McManus heading in a cross from the left side of the goal that Kulai failed to see.

Kulai was injured in a collision with McManus a few minutes later, but resumed play after a short rest.

A hard shot by McManus across the goal mouth into the side of the net tied the count a little more than half-way through the half.

VICTORIA GOLF TEAM CHAMPS

Capture City Interclub Team Championship; Gorge
Vale Second

Members of the Victoria Golf Club captured the club team championship of the city, competing in conjunction with the qualifying round of the city championship at Oak Bay on Sunday. The home club squad had a total of 589 as compared to 609 for the Gorge Vale Club, runners-up.

Players from the Uplands were third with 611, with Macaulay Point fourth with 618 and Colwood fifth with 680. Match play in the city championship will start tomorrow and continue through Sunday with the 36-hole final Monday. On Sunday a par competition will be staged with mixed foursomes billed for Monday.

Scullers To Race Tonight

Bob Pearce, Pro Champ, Meets Three Australians
at Toronto

TORONTO (CP) — Bob Pearce of Hamilton, greatest professional sculler in the world, and Joe Burk of Philadelphia, the best amateur, will row the same distance under identical conditions tonight while the sculling fraternity anxiously waits to make a comparison.

There is a feeling in sculling circles that the taciturn Burk is the only man who could sit in a shell and give the pro champion a real race over a distance. With both facing high class opposition in mile tests over the Canadian National Exhibition course tonight, a comparison of their times should be interesting.

Pearce, ruler of the sport for more than a decade, will race Evans Paddon, George Cook and Percy See, the Australians, in the second of two races leading to a three-mile title clash with Paddon next Friday night.

Burk will meet the pick of Toronto's amateurs in a mile race immediately preceding the pro clash.

ROLLER SKATING ARENA IS OPENED

500 Enthusiasts Try New Floor at Sons of Canada
Hall

Victoria's new roller skating arena, located in the Sons of Canada Hall, corner of View and Blanshard Streets, was given a rousing opening last night when close to 500 turned out to try their hand at doing intricate manoeuvres on the four wheeled footgear.

Those present included experienced artists who turned in some graceful exhibitions of fancy skating. Beginners were plentiful, too, and not a few of them wound up with dives to the pine boards.

Alderman James Adam officially opened the new rink with a few well-chosen words of congratulation to the management.

The hall has been renovated with 5,000 square feet of skating surface available, and some of the better class skating waiters and fox-trotters are played for the skaters. The equipment includes 150 pairs of new fibre-wheel skates.

The rink is open every afternoon from 2 to 5:30 and in the evening from 8 to 11. A good program has been lined up for Labor Day.

In connection with the rink a fancy skating club is being formed by Harry Hornsby and Harry Holman.

Reach Final in Mixed Doubles

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hocking and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. I. Edwards reached the mixed doubles final of the city tennis championships at the Victoria Club yesterday.

The first pair marked up a three-set victory over Mrs. Marshall and Reg Corfield, 6-3, 2-6, 6-2, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwards won in straight sets from Mrs. Birley and Bladen, 8-6, 6-1.

Yesterday's flight results follow:

MIXED DOUBLES
Miss Anderson and Jackson defeated Mrs. Rawnsley and Harris, 6-2, 6-3.

MEN'S SINGLES
A. Wright defeated W. D. Kennedy, 9-7, 6-2.

R. Bladen defeated J. Wells, 6-1, 6-4.

Boxla Teams Will Visit California

VANCOUVER — The intercity box lacrosse commission yesterday approved sending two teams to the San Francisco exposition in 1939 to play exhibition matches.

The decision was made at a meeting of the commissioners in accepting the invitation extended by the fair management last week.

It was understood the teams would be picked from players on the five intercity teams.

Postpones Run

BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS, Utah—John R. Cobb, British driver seeking to better the world land-speed record of 345.49 miles per hour, said today he would not make his scheduled run Saturday because rain squalls had softened the track.

SMASHED 766 STRAIGHT CLAYS—Joe Hiestand, Hillsboro, O. amateur seen above really startled the trapshooting world when he shattered 766 straight to win the North American championship for the third time in four years. Smiling Mrs. Lela Hall of Strasburg, Mo. seen with Hiestand, broke 195 out of 200 to bag the women's title for the fourth time in a row.

The National Baseball League pennant race, if there's going to be one from here is now squarely up to Bill McKeechie and his streaky Cincinnati Reds.

With Pittsburgh Pirates riding along on a seven-game lead at this writing, and what is left of the once-proud New York Giants resting in fourth place, Cincinnati's alternately hot and cold outfit either can make a fight of it, or just let it die a natural death.

For, with the season down to its last 30-or-so games, the Reds tangle with the Pirates nine times before they rig down the curtain October 2. No other club meets the Bucs more than five times the rest of the way, and 15 of the 32 tilts still left on the Pittsburgh calendar are against second division outfits.

Thus, if wily Willy can get his boys steamed up when Pittsburgh comes to town—(six of the nine games are in Cincinnati), things still are likely to pop, although the chances are the smoky city crew, looking like the McCoy in taking three out of four from the Giants in their latest manoeuvring, will breeze in. You can't overlook the fact that the Pirates already have won eight of their 13 engagements with the Reds.

LOOK LIKE CHAMPS
The Pittsburghers, after a sloppy showing all through August, had just about everything as they opened the final month with a 6 to 0 whitewash.

With just a little more than two weeks of the 1938 schedule left, the second place Sacramento Senators today were wondering if the old saying about the team being on top the Fourth of July winding up there the end of the season has lost its charm in the Coast Baseball League.

The Senators were on top July 4, then the Los Angeles Angels evicted them July 16 and have (Turn to Page 12, Col. 2)

Quist Meets Riggs

Are Drawn for Opening Singles Match Tomorrow in Davis Cup Tennis Between U.S. and Australia

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The draw today for the opening of the Davis Cup challenge tennis round tomorrow pitted Bobby Riggs, American, against Adrian Quist of the challenging Australians. Don Budge, America's stellar ace, will meet Jack Bromwich.

A likely patch of meadow grass has been lined off into three courts, a set of circus bleachers are being knocked together around the pock-marked surface of the tilting ground and everything is set for the start of play at the Germantown Cricket Club.

Quist and Riggs will clash in the opening singles match at 2 tomorrow, best three out of five sets, with the second singles to go on immediately after. The doubles will be played at 3 Sunday, with Budge and Gene Mako opposing Quist and Bromwich. The two concluding singles, with the pairings switched, are scheduled Monday.

The United States players are firm favorites to retain the mug, won from the British at Wimbledon last summer.

Jasper Golf Draws Many

Tournament Opening Monday Expected to Have Record Entry

JASPER PARK, Alta.—Never before has there been so much pre-tournament activity around Jasper Park as there is for the 13th annual playing of the famous Totem Pole tournament which commences here on Sunday.

It looks like a record entry and some excellent golfers are among the registered. One of the features of the tournament in so far as numbers is concerned is the fact that it has been necessary to operate a complete special from Vancouver on Saturday evening to take care of the large entry from Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle. There will be close to 100 on this special train which will be one of the largest golfers' specials ever operated on the continent in connection with a tournament.

A strong contender in the women's section will be Miss Barbara Winn of Seattle, rated as a three-handicap player in the State of Washington. Mrs. R. C. Field of Victoria, who won the women's championship here last year, is returning to defend her laurels. Mrs. H. P. Powell, another low handicap player from Bermuda, is already at the lodge.

In the men's sections, Bobby Proctor of Edmonton, Alberta champion, has sent in his entry. Leslie Bell and Herb Hall of Calgary, both former winners of the Totem Pole trophy, will be on hand. S. P. Powell of Bermuda, a seven-handicap man, is now here. Dr. Spideel of Seattle, a nine-handicap player, who competed last year is again returning. These are only a few of the large contingent who will be on hand from all parts of central and western Canada and the United States.

The tournament will be officially opened on Monday morning when Lieutenant Governor J. C. Bowen of Alberta drives the first ball.

CALGARY TEAM POLO CHAMPS

Defeat Grand Prairie 4 to 3 in Overtime at Vancouver

VANCOUVER — A Calgary team defeated Grande Prairie, B.C., 4 to 3 yesterday in an overtime battle and won the British Columbia challenge cup of Vancouver's polo week.

King Roenisch made his third goal of the game the winning one after the teams played on even terms through six chukkers. Calgary won the cup because it remained the only undefeated team, while the other four in the running have each suffered at least one loss.

Grande Prairie got away to an early lead in the game with goals by Tom Talbot on Midget and Frank Ward on Top Notch in the second and third chukkers. Calgary evened the game up in the fourth, however, with goals by Clem Gardiner on Knight Errant and Roenisch on Frosty.

Roenisch added another to the Calgary total with a goal on Dixie in the fifth, but Ward evened it up in the next chukker. Roenisch scored the winner in overtime on Dixie.

Football to Open Here September 28

The Wednesday Football League will open its 1938-39 season on Wednesday, September 28, it was decided last night at a meeting in the Colonist boardroom. Jimmy Hall, president, was in the chair.

Three clubs, Hudson's Bay, Spencers and Navy have entered and another team is expected. Closing of entries has been extended to September 21. Clubs wishing to enter are asked to communicate with P. C. Shrimpton, secretary.

Friendly Cricket Fixture Tomorrow

Victoria B cricket eleven will meet Albions at Beacon Hill Park tomorrow afternoon, starting at 2.15, in a friendly fixture. The Victoria team follows: Ley, Macdonald, Tygurst, Pudney, Wilby, Mitchell, Wilkinson, Nation, Rathlou, Treherne and Martin.

The Five C's Victoria A match billed for Macdonald Park tomorrow has been canceled owing to the fact the Five C's are unable to field a team.

CAMERONS WIN CUP SEMIFINAL MATCH

Playing fine ball behind the two-hit pitching of Rosy McLellan, Camerons' softballers defeated Burns' Shamrocks, 2 to 0, last night in a Calvert Cup semifinal game at Central Park. Eric Moir did the twirling for the Shamrocks.

Hibernians Meet Clyde

Battle Tomorrow in Feature Game of Scottish Football

GLASGOW — Surprise packet of the month-old soccer season in Scotland, Clyde tackles Hibernians in the feature contest of the first division, card tomorrow. Playing before a home crowd at Shawfield Park, Clyde is expected to turn in its fifth straight victory of the season.

The unbeaten shipbuilders with eight points, have a two-point margin on five teams—Aberdeen, Hearts, Rangers, Queen of the South and Partick Thistle—bracketed in second place.

Aberdeen's great win over Celtic in Glasgow last week makes the Dons' favorites, against Motherwell at Pittodrie Park, but Hearts will be up against a tough proposition when the Celts visit Edinburgh. The green shirts trounced Hearts 4 to 2 in the corresponding battle last year.

The Rangers, who entertain Ayr United, share with Clyde the distinction of being the only clubs with unbeaten certificates in the first division, but the colorful Glasgow squad was held to draws in two games.

FORM REVERSALS

After fighting to avoid relegation in the last campaign, Queen of the South has shown marked reversal of form in the current season. The Dumfries outfit is at home to St. Mirren, without a victory to date.

Partick Thistle, another team challenging for leadership, is away to Albion Rovers. The Rovers came up from the second division this season along with Keith Rovers, but have obtained only three points of a possible eight.

Raith may return empty handed from Falkirk. The newcomers have fared even worse than Albion Rovers, obtaining only two points to date.

In the second division, Alloa and Cowdenbeath are out in front with three straight victories each. The former is away to Dundee United at the week-end and Cowdenbeath visits Edinburgh City.

ENGLISH LEAGUE

LONDON — Most English League Football clubs will go into tomorrow's round of games at full strength. With the 1938 season barely a week old, majority of teams have played two matches, but, despite sun-baked grounds, there have been few injuries.

Everton and Leeds United came through with two victories each to lead the major league. The toffee-makers may emerge on top with a home game against Brentford, but Leeds have a difficult task at Charlton.

Faced with a heavy task during the next week, Everton's players will go into training at Bushey, near Watford. The Lancastrians meet Arsenal at Highbury, September 10.

CONTROVERSY

Controversy has developed over various interpretations of the revised "charging" rule and an accompanying footnote.

The rule says a player shall be penalized if he intentionally "charges in a violent or dangerous manner; or charges an opponent from behind unless the latter be deliberately obstructing." The footnote reads: "This is not intended to penalize all charging; it is permissible as long as, in the opinion of the referee, it is fair and the players concerned are attempting to play the ball."

Some referees consider the footnote bars a generally recognized procedure in which a defending player passes back to his goalkeeper and then obstructs an attacking opponent. Most critics believe this a wrong interpretation, but the football association is expected to give a ruling in the matter.

Savannah, Ga.—Wesley Ramey, Grand Rapids, Mich., outpointed Chino Alvarez, Tampa, Fla. (10), weights unavailable.

Colbern's Fourth Hit Big Smash

Drives Home Winning Run in Last of Ninth;
Score Is 3 to 2

Jack Colbern's smash through the box, scoring pinch-hitter Ovee from second, in the last half of the ninth inning, with two men out, gave the Vancouver Maple Leafs a sweet 3 to 2 victory over Tacoma Tigers as the Western International League pro ball clubs opened their three-game series at the Athletic Park last night. The teams will play the second game tonight at 5:30, and the third Saturday afternoon at 2.

It was a grand finish to a swell ball game; and the large crowd of fans went home well satisfied, especially as they had decided the battle was going to end in a deadlock.

Colbern was the big stick of the evening, having a perfect night at the rubber with four smashes in as many official times at bat. He walked in the first inning. Colbern roams in right field for Manager Johnny Kerr's outfit.

The clubs played nice tight ball, with Brady, Vancouver, and Iskette, Tacoma, a couple of left-handers, putting on a real pitching duel. The former was picked for nine hits while he struck out four and walked one. Iskette gave out 10 hits, fanned three and passed a like number. In addition Iskette showed some smart fielding with six assists to his credit. Each club pulled a fast double-play during the night.

TWO HOME RUNS

Just to keep the fans up on their toes the boys threw in a couple of home runs for good measure. Harriman, Vancouver shortstop, lifted the ball over the left centre field wall in the third, and Iskette put the apple over dead centre in the seventh. Goodman, Tacoma right fielder, had a bit of tough luck when he patted the ball out of the lot in the sixth, but was held at two bases when the umpires ruled the ball went through a hole in the wire netting.

Goodman also had a perfect night at the plate with three for three, two doubles and a single. He was credited with a sacrifice on his fourth time up. In addition the fast-moving fly hawk pulled in six balls.

After two scoreless innings Tacoma went into the lead in the third when Mudge was safe on a fielder's choice, advanced to second on Rickett's walk and scored on Goodman's single through the box. Harriman's homer put Vancouver back on even terms in their half of the inning. This smash was the Leaf's first hit off Iskette.

Vancouver moved ahead in the sixth with a lone run. McCue (Turn to Page 12, Col. 2)

Induction At St. Andrew's

Rev. J. L. W. McLean Takes Over Pastorate of Presbyterian Church

Rev. J. L. W. McLean, M.A., former pastor of Knox Presbyterian Church in Leamington, Ontario, was inducted into the pastorate of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Douglas Street, last evening at an impressive ceremony conducted by the Presbytery of Victoria.

The service opened with a devotional period and a sermon by

Rev. J. L. W. McLean, M.A.

Rev. James Hyde, who spoke on the responsibilities of present day Christians.

This was followed by an account by Rev. Peter McNabb, interim moderator, of the steps leading up to the call to Rev. McLean to take over the ministry of St. Andrew's Church. It was over a year since the resignation of Rev. H. F. S. Luttrell, former pastor.

After the new minister had responded to the customary questions of the Presbytery, he was formally inducted into the church by the moderator and visiting ministers.

Rev. S. Lundy, Sooke, gave a brief address to the minister, and Rev. T. H. McAllister, of the Gorge-Edsall church, addressed the large congregation. He complimented them on their loyalty to the church during past years.

The scriptures were read by Rev. J. M. Niven and several appropriate anthems were sung by the choir.

Jesse Longfield, church organist, conducted the musical portion of the service.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held in the church lecture room, at which J. A. Kennedy gave a short welcoming address to Mr. McLean and his family. A presentation was made to Mr. McNabb from the congregation in appreciation for services rendered to the church. Refreshments were served.

was given a walk and went all the way to third on Samhammer's long single to right centre, the ball smashing up against the fence. Mountain struck out, but Wise came through with a single past third, scoring McCue. Then Isekite stroled to the plate in the seventh and put himself back in the ball game with his home run.

The winning run in the ninth was the perfect wind-up. Clifford opened the inning with a single to right field. Orevic, batting for Brady, bunted and was safe when Isekite let the ball go through him. However, Clifford was caught off second on the play, shortstop Ewart making a fast throw to second baseman Ambrose. Harriman was out, Ewart to McCue, as Orevic raced to second. Colbern then punched out his fourth hit to score Orevic with the winning run.

ruled the roost since. Now the Seraphs are beginning to show signs of wear and tear.

Fourth-place San Diego, fighting for a place in the post-season playoffs, made it three in a row over Angels last night behind the five-hit pitching of big Jim Chaplin. The Padres' 2 to 1 win pushed the idle Sacramento team to within two games of the top.

But what's going to happen the rest of this week is a big question mark. Today the Padres entertain the Senators and the Padres have been getting exceptional pitching. The slipping fifth place San Francisco Seals, who have a habit of beating the teams hardest to beat, go to Los Angeles.

In other games tonight Seattle opens at Portland and Hollywood Stars at Oakland.

Napoleon Made It "Devil's Island"

NEW YORK.

IF DEVIL'S ISLAND is ever abolished, a large chunk of humanity's gratitude should go to a fiery-eyed little 100-pounder, Rene Belbenoit. For that purpose today motivates the life of the author of that amazing record of man's brutality to man, "Dry Guillotine."

Speaking so softly as to be almost inaudible and yet conveying a driving, almost deadly, sense of fury at all Devil's Island stands for, Belbenoit said here:

"In one way or another I will finish Devil's Island, and the French government can't stop me. I don't care if they never give me a pardon. I have the human right to speak of what I see. I was the only convict ever to work in the archives of Devil's Island, and I copied all the documents."

"When I offered 'Dry Guillotine' for publication, nobody believed me. Some stories seemed too strong to be true. But the French government has not protested one word, because they know it is true. Now I am known. Now my second book tells the whole history of Devil's Island. Why it is a hell and who is responsible: French justice and the French government."

30 YEARS COST 2,000 FRANCES

About 100 years ago, Belbenoit explained, Devil's Island was a decent colony, thriving on the export of coffee and other products. Then came Napoleon. When one of his ministers asked who would guard the criminal on his new prison isle, Napoleon answered: "Those who are more criminal than the convicts."

Thus the administration looms menacingly in Belbenoit's forthcoming book (due the first of the year). A, he set forth so clearly in "Dry Guillotine," one of the everyday crimes on the part of the keepers is to accept money from a convict, promising him escape. So, on the night of his planned and paid for escape, almost 10 times out of 10, the convict is found dead.

So odorous is the name of Devil's Island throughout the world that French capitalists find it unwise to make any investments in the colony. Since all labor there goes to convicts, who are not paid, the some 2,500 "free convicts"—prisoners who have survived their term but are still confined from five to eight years to a lifetime on the island—have to work. It's a common saying down there, according to Bel-

HOW TO MAKE ICED TEA

Infuse six heaping teaspoons of Salada Black Tea in a pint of fresh, boiling water. After six minutes strain liquid into two-quart container. While hot, add 1 to 1½ cups of granulated sugar and juice of 2 lemons, strained. Stir well until sugar is dissolved; fill container with cold water. Do not allow tea to cool before adding the cold water; otherwise liquid will become cloudy. Serve with chilled ice.

"SALADA" ICED TEA

benoit, that when your sentence ends, your jail begins. For even "convicts in solitary" know where they will sleep.

A recent news story of the death of a woman convict on Devil's Island brought up the subject of the one remaining woman, Marie Bartet, whom Belbenoit knows. Now about 65, this former prisoner has been a "free convict" for 30 years, scrubbing floors and washing, whenever she could get work, to make a living. Thirty years ago, if someone had given her 2,000 francs—now about some $80 and more than she has been able to make in a lifetime—she could have "come back," and gone home to France.

BELIEVES FRENCH NOW BLUFFING

Certainly there's no love lost between Belbenoit and the French government. Now a real, not a fictional, man without a country, Rene Belbenoit months ago wrote President Le Brun of France for a pardon as a "fugitive from justice."

"The President did not know me," Belbenoit said, and his letter filtered down through various French officials until it reached Devil's Island. "Always I have fought with the Devil's Island administration," Belbenoit explained. "I have published stories in France about their graft, and they don't like me."

So they wrote back: "Belbenoit escaped five times, passed 1,000 days in solitary black cell, and was always a bad convict. That said No to his request for pardon."

Recent news stories that Devil's Island will be abolished, Belbenoit calls a French bluff.

"Remember, there are 7,000 men on Devil's Island today—and they can't go back to France. Even if no more convicts were sent there, the island—shame of French civilization—would be alive for 10, 15 or 20 years more."

The little author of "Dry Guillotine" (now in its 16th printing, by the way) has been living these last few months on governmental sufferance. But, spontaneously, some 8,000 readers of his book have petitioned President Roosevelt for an extension of Belbenoit's few months in this country. (Return to France means virtual death for the man. Letters sent here or to the President may help save Belbenoit's life.)

On September 15, his temporary stay in the United States comes to an end. Something has to be done.

Belbenoit still has a family in France. But he has been away 17 years and accepts the fact that even your family forgets you. He gets letters still, but his mother—"now an old woman"—writes: "Don't come back. You are free now. Don't take the chance. It's better I never see you again."

Chicago Herald In Tabloid Size

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Herald and Examiner announced last night that beginning with next Monday morning's editions it would be published in tabloid size.

The announcement said the Herald and Examiner, a Hearst paper, would be the 54th newspaper in the United States to adopt the tabloid makeup. The price of the paper in Chicago and suburbs will be reduced from three to two cents.

MILLER BEATS KING

LIVERPOOL—Freddie Miller, former world featherweight champion from Cincinnati, outpointed Johnny King, British Empire bantamweight titleholder, in a 10-round bout last night.

American traffic ideas, such as street-crossing overpasses and parking decks for storing automobiles, are proposed for London.

Special Today — better mousetraps

Everyone knows the story of the man who built the better mousetrap. He lived in the middle of a forest, but, because his mousetraps were better, the world discovered him and made a beaten path to his door.

Today, men make better mousetraps, better automobiles, better furniture. But when you want them, you don't have to travel to a distant forest to find them. They are described and displayed for you in your own home—in the advertisements in this paper.

The advertising section is the most valuable part of the paper to you as a buyer. Reading it will pay you dividends every day.

Return of Rings Ordered By Court

Return of four diamond rings, with a total value of $1,325, to F. W. Francis, jeweler, within 10 days was ordered by Magistrate Henry Hall in City Police Court this morning.

Low Choy, Chinese, was convicted recently of theft of the rings, which he obtained on the pretext of showing them to his wife for selection of one as a gift. The rings were pawned to Kenneth A. McLeod for $320.

The 10-day delay in the return order was given by the magistrate to allow McLeod to appeal, or to take action in the civil courts.

In ordering the return of the rings Magistrate Hall said McLeod should have been on his guard when four obviously new pieces of jewelry were offered to him within a few days, and that no proper entries had been made in his books in connection with the transaction.

McLeod was fined $72.50 by Magistrate Hall for operating as a pawnbroker without a license. He was given a week in which to pay, with the alternative of 10 days in jail.

Hon. John Hart and Mrs. Hart have left for Jasper Park, where the Minister of Finance will participate in the annual Totem Pole tournament.

More To Go To High School

Student Body Expected To Be 150 Larger Than 1,100 of Last Year

An increase of approximately 150 students was anticipated by H. L. Smith, principal of Victoria High School, today as he surveyed application for enrollment received to date at the institution.

Against a total of about 1,100 students last year, he expects in the neighborhood of 1,250 when school opens on Tuesday.

"Our accommodation will be taxed to capacity, but I think we can handle the increased student body," he stated.

In place of 31 divisions last year, the school will probably have 34 when the coming session opens. The last of the three-year course graduates matriculated in 1936 and four-year-course students formed only four divisions in the matriculation class last year against an anticipated six for the coming semester.

A new arrangement, which gives the school two study halls, will assist in providing accommodation for the increased numbers.

The total is well below the record of about 1,350 reached when Victoria High School accommodated Saanich and is beneath the similar number registered prior to the introduction of the new junior high school system two years ago. It will probably be increased within the next year or two.

In a statement today, Mr. Smith advised students of Grade XI and XII to report at the school at 9 Tuesday morning. Those in Grade X may register at 10 and those in Grade IX at 11. No school session will be held Tuesday afternoon as students start their shopping for supplies.

Trade Pact Changes
LONDON (CP)—Minor changes in the Canadian-German trade agreement may result from the flying trip to Berlin made by the Hon. W. D. Euler, Canadian minister of Trade and Commerce.

Mr. Euler said today that the changes would not be extensive because both countries agreed it was working satisfactorily. He cut short his European trip "in view of all circumstances," and will return to Canada immediately, sailing tomorrow.

TOWN TOPICS

Police are looking for a driver yourself car reported missing from Duncan since yesterday afternoon.

Three motorists were fined $2.50 each in City Police Court this morning for parking over one hour in restricted areas.

Theft of a bicycle belonging to five-year-old Billy Smith, 946 Yates Street, from outside the Columbia Theatre was reported to city police yesterday evening.

G. T. Rodknapp was granted a building permit by the city yesterday for the construction of a $2,000 dwelling at 950 Market Street. E. H. Pope is contractor.

A copy of the report submitted to the Portland council by its city commissioner, favoring establishment of a municipally-owned and operated power plant, has been forwarded to the City Council by John Dean for consideration with franchise matters.

Monday, September 5, being a public holiday, postal services will be restricted and will be as follows: Forenoon deliveries of letter carriers only will be made. The Post Office wickets will be open from 8 a.m. to noon. Rural mail deliveries will be made as usual.

Driving Tests In November

Police to Issue Manual for Study of Auto Operators

The second phase of British Columbia's war on automobile accidents—the testing of car drivers—will start November 1, provincial traffic authorities said today.

The 30-mile-an-hour speed limit in cities, invoked at the beginning of this year as the start of the campaign, has already brought about a reduction in the toll of death and injury from traffic mishaps, provincial police headquarters claim, and the driving tests, which are to be largely an educational matter, are expected to cut the losses still further.

In Victoria drivers will be tested at the provincial traffic headquarters in the old drill hall on Menzies Street.

Plans are being made to accommodate equipment for testing. The examination will be in two rooms, one for written questions on traffic rules and operation of cars, the other for reaction and eyesight tests.

The vision equipment and re-actometers have been purchased by the government and are ready for operating when the accommodation is ready.

Average drivers will have to take the following tests:
(1) Answer a set of 25 questions dealing with the mechanical features of operating a car and rules for driving.

(2) Be tested by a dummy re-actometer, which will judge the time taken for a driver's muscles to respond to the message from his brain in an emergency.

(3) Have his eyesight tested for ordinary acuity or keenness of vision, color distinction on red, green and amber lights, width of vision, depth of perception so he can judge the distance of an approaching car, and double vision.

Where a driver does not pass these tests easily, other things will be judged to determine his capability to drive.

Within the next three weeks or so the traffic department intends to issue a driver's manual containing all the information that will be necessary to answer the written tests. Inspector George Hood said today:

"There will be no trick questions," he said. "Opposite each question will be written a right and a wrong answer. All the driver does is to put a cross in the square opposite the answer he thinks correct."

So that there can be no comparing of notes between drivers 10 sets of 25 different questions have been drafted and no applicant will know beforehand which one he must take.

PEACH PRICES LOW AND QUALITY GOOD

The peach market was reported at its best at Wholesale Row today. Prices are the lowest they have been for years, and the quality is extra good. Two carloads were received from the Okanagan today, and another shipment is due tomorrow.

Numerous shipments had been received earlier in the week. Shipments of Cornish and Ladyfinger grapes are expected in from California tomorrow.

It was also reported that the orange market on medium sizes had advanced considerably.

Local Italian prunes for preserving are now on the market in large quantities, and Bartlett pears for the same purpose can be secured.

City Fire Loss for Year $11,242

Fire losses in Victoria for the first seven months of 1938 totaled $11,242.41, compared with $59,832.15 in the corresponding period of 1937.

Losses for the month of July were announced by the city fire department this morning as $753.10, compared with $5,236.65 in July, 1937. All but $100 of the month's loss was covered by insurance.

August figures are not yet available. During the first seven months of this year there were 52 fires involving loss in the city, compared with 54 in the same period of last year.

A Labor Day outing is being arranged under the auspices of the Advance Youth Club. A two-day camp will be held at the foot of Sooke River Falls. A program of sports, hiking, swimming and camp-fire talks and sing-songs will make this an enjoyable outing. A car will leave 1010 Langley Street at 7 Saturday evening, and again at the same place on Sunday and Monday mornings at 10.

OBITUARIES

CHARLOTTE C. McPHAIL

Funeral services for Mrs. Charlotte Campbell McPhail, who passed away yesterday at her home, 2643 Forbes Street, will be held from the family residence tomorrow afternoon at 3.30. Rev. J. M. Niven will officiate and interment will be in Colwood Burial Park. The funeral arrangements are in charge of the Sands Mortuary Ltd.

VIRGINIA GEORGE

Funeral services for Mrs. Virginia George of Brentwood Bay were held this morning at 10 in the West Saanich Catholic Church. Rev. Father Cyr celebrated mass and the remains were laid at rest in the West Saanich Catholic cemetery. The pallbearers were: Chris Paul, Horace Paul, Johnny Sam, Harry Marshall, S. Thomas and B. Jimme.

HOWARD HISLOP HEMPHILL

Capt. Howard Hislop Hemphill, M.C., passed away very suddenly at his home on Third Avenue, Sidney, this morning, aged 45 years. Capt. Hemphill was born in London, England, and saw service in France during the Great War with the 2nd Leicesters, and had been a resident of Sidney for two and a half years. He is survived by his widow and two sons, Peter and David, at home; his mother, Mrs. James Hemphill of London, England, who is at present visiting here, and one brother in England. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Pattullo Pledges University Aid

Asks Governors Not to Carry Out Limitation Plan

The provincial government is asking the Board of Governors of the University of British Columbia not to carry out its proposal to limit the enrollment of students this term, Premier Pattullo announced this morning.

The Premier's announcement followed an interview with the cabinet by a student delegation consisting of Carson McGuire, Kenneth Beckett and C. Baird. They protested against the limiting of enrollment and against an increase of $25 a year in fees.

The university board had announced limitation, and increase of fees because it feared overcrowding at the institution.

The Premier's statement did not mention the subject of fees, but he gave the pledge that "the government is quite prepared to take responsibility that the work of the university shall be carried on at its present high standard."

He declined to enlarge further on this remark, saying it was not possible to make any definite commitment as to construction of buildings this year. He pointed out the university board were apprehensive that second and third year work would find impossible accommodation unless additional accommodation were provided.

SUPPORT CITY RELIEF MOVE

Other Municipalities Join Victoria in Resolution to U.B.C.M. Meeting

Victoria's resolution seeking amendment of existing relief regulations fixing responsibility for cases who have lived in the province for at least three years upon the municipality in which he has lived for the longest period during those three years, received a measure of support from Chilliwack, Richmond and Maple Ridge, according to the printed resolutions for the Union of B.C. Municipalities convention this month, forwarded to the city today.

The city's resolution notes that several persons in semidetached condition and in many cases incapacitated through advanced age or physical deformity, are attracted to Victoria and British Columbia through easier conditions of living.

It sets forth the clause in the Residence and Responsibility Act which permits such persons to become municipal charges after three years' residence within the province, and emphasizes the hardship their maintenance causes the municipal taxpayers.

"Therefore be it resolved that the Union of British Columbia Municipalities be requested to bring the strongest possible pressure to bear upon the government with a view to the said clause being deleted from the act," the city resolution concludes.

Similar amendments, to free municipalities from such burdens, are sought by the three other municipalities which have filed resolutions on the question.

Medical Men Gather Here

Northwest Specialists in Internal Medicine Hear Colleagues Lecture

Specialists in internal medicine from many parts of the Northwest gathered in Victoria today for the annual meeting of the North Pacific Society of Internal Medicine, at which they will hear addresses by Dr. William Boyd of the Banting Institute of the University of Toronto faculty of medicine and Dr. Donald Sutton, professor of medicine at Chicago's Northwestern University Medical School.

The 40 delegates, including Dr. D. M. Baillie and Dr. Stuart G. Kenning of Victoria, gathered this morning in the lower lounge of the Empress Hotel to hear the first of the lectures, which will be continued this evening and tomorrow morning.

Dr. Boyd, who is the guest speaker of the convention will speak this evening, following a dinner at the Empress Hotel, his subject being "Geographic Pathology." He will also lecture to the visiting medicos on "Reasons for the Recent Increase in Bronchiogenic Carcinoma (Cancer of the Lungs) and Decalcifying Diseases of the Bone."

LECTURE SUBJECTS

Dr. Sutton's lecture will be on "Arterio Sclerosis." Other lectures to be given are X-ray studies of the skull and the relation to pituitary dysfunction, Dr. Homer P. Rush, Portland; postural hypotension, Dr. George D. Capaccio, Seattle; the use of iodized oil in the treatment of asthma, Dr. Merle W. Moore, Portland; coarctation of the aorta; autopsy report, Dr. George H. Anderson, Spokane; recent studies with culture of human marrow, Dr. Edwin E. Osmond, Portland; gout, Dr. James M. Bowers, Seattle; renal osteitis, Dr. Howard P. Lewis, Portland; stab wound of the heart, Dr. Stuart G. Kenning, Victoria; gangrene following quinidine therapy, Dr. H. Howard Hamilton, Seattle.

This afternoon, following luncheon at the Empress Hotel the doctors will play golf at Oak Bay. Tomorrow at noon there will be a no-host luncheon at the Colwood Golf and Country Club, followed by an afternoon of golf on the links there.

THE DELEGATES

Among the medical men and their wives registered for the two-day convention are Dr. C. H. Vrooman and Dr. E. F. Strong, Vancouver; Dr. and Mrs. H. Wheeler, Seattle; Dr. and Mrs. P. J. Lewis, Yakima; Dr. R. L. King, Seattle; Dr. H. W. des Brisay, Vancouver; Dr. M. C. Riddle, Portland; Dr. E. M. Bannick, Seattle; Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Bowers, Seattle; Dr. and Mrs. Frank R. Baird, Portland; Dr. and Mrs. M. W. Moore, Portland; Dr. and Mrs. D. O. Palmer, Crimm, Evansville; Dr. and Mrs. G. T. Anderson, Spokane; Mr. Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Goldsmith, Portland.

OFFICERS ELECTED

At the annual meeting which followed today's luncheon, at which Dr. George A. Dowling of Seattle, retiring president, presided, Dr. Charles E. Watts of Seattle was named president for the coming year. Dr. Blair Holcomb of Portland was elected vice-president and Dr. Lester J. Palmer of Seattle was returned as secretary-treasurer. Dr. George H. Anderson of Spokane and Dr. George F. Strong of Vancouver were re-elected to the executive committee.

The amount of $377.14 is on hand in the north children's fund to be used for the annual children's Christmas party. The total cost of the kiddies' picnic held recently was $575. This amount taken from $952.14 which was collected, leaves the balance to be used for the Christmas function. The sponsors acknowledge receipt of $4 collected by boys and girls in Oak Bay to add to the fund. The children who collected this amount follow: Raymond LeHequet, Margaret Brocker, Peggy Sparks, Patsy Sparks, Beryl Walker, Marnie Johns, Bruce Hardy, Nat Gould, Bobby Bayne, Dorothy Bayne, Nanette Wilsner, Barbara Law and Jacquelin LeHequet.

In Town Today

Peter F. Davidge, young business man of Toronto, whose parents lived in Victoria many years ago, arrived here today on business. He is in the exclusive wallpaper business, which was started by his late father in this city. His mother was formerly Miss Nina Powell of this city.

Victoria seems unusually popular this year as a vacation spot, with residents of Houston and several prominent citizens of that Texas city have come here on their holidays. Latest arrivals include Mrs. J. J. Davis and Mrs. B. M. Bloomfield, who checked in this morning.

People from overseas at the Empress Hotel today are: Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rich of Cambridge, England; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lawson of Glasgow, and Mrs. D. F. Smith of Maidstone, Kent.

Two up-country members of Parliament arrived in town today on business connected with their constituencies. They were Frank Putnam of Creston and Capt. C. S. Leary of Nakusp. Mr. Putnam was accompanied by Guy Constable, secretary of the Creston school board. All had meetings at the Parliament Buildings with members of the cabinet.

Others registered today include Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Constantine, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Collier, Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Thompson, Lake Crescent, Washington; Mrs. Roger Cutting, Seattle; J. M. Blackford, Seattle; Miss Joan Reary, Hamilton, and Mrs. H. H. Parke, Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. D. McLaughlin, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. McGregory, Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Bloom, Edmonds; L. H. Hall, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Mason, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. B. E. In computing the number of words in an advertisement, count five words for the first two lines and seven words for each line thereafter. This is not an absolute guide to the number of lines, much depending on the length of the individual words.

The Times will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any advertisement. Advertisers are asked to be sure that all advertisements are correct. Any claim for rebate on account of errors or omissions must be made within 30 days from the date of the same, otherwise the claim will not be allowed.

Advertisers who desire it may have replies addressed to a box at the Times Office and forwarded to their private address. A charge of 10c is made for this service.

Subscribers wishing their addresses changed should notify this office as well as the carrier. If your Times is missing, phone E2122 before 7 p.m. and a copy will be sent by special messenger.

BOX REPLIES AVAILABLE

Letters addressed to the following boxes are available at the Times Office for presentation of box letters. Maximum replies are obtained by advertisers who follow up replies promptly.

31,000 Young Men Needed for R.A.F.

Learn Trade, See World, Eat Well. Are Opportunities Offered Recruits

By SIR KINGSLEY WOOD
Secretary of State for Air

LONDON. CINDERELLA of the defence services until recent years, the Royal Air Force is now engaged upon vast expansion designed to create a formidable and effective defence for this country and to enable us to exercise a paramount influence in maintaining the peace of the world.

The development of the air-plane since the Wright brothers made their first historic flight 35 years ago has been phenomenal. To us, in this island home of ours, secure for centuries behind the sure shield of the Royal Navy, this technical progress has involved an entire change in the nature of our defence problem. It is for this reason we are spending vast sums of money on air defence.

The cost of airframes, engines and equipment, together with technical and warlike stores, will amount to a total of about £78,000,000 ($390,000,000) during the current year alone. The capital cost of our program for new buildings will exceed £70,000,000 ($350,000,000).

But all these measures would go for naught if we did not ensure that the men were available to operate the airplanes and to maintain them.

A month ago I launched an appeal for 31,000 men, as many as were in the whole air force three years ago. I told the country that the Royal Air Force would need during the present year 2,100 pilots, 550 air observers, 26,000 airmen, and 3,000 boys.

I am glad to say that the response has been excellent. It must continue. What is needed is a steady flow of candidates in each class until March next. That will allow us to have each course of training filled to capacity.

What does this vital service offer to the young man today?

Let me say at once that it is no mere blind alley occupation. The Royal Air Force is primarily an engineering and technical service. The great majority of the 31,000 men we need will be given technical education in one of the many trades on which the air force relies to maintain its aircraft in the air.

PILOTS AND OBSERVERS

First, 1,700 men of between 17½ and 25 years of age are needed to take short service commissions and become pilots. They will be taught to fly.

Another 360 men between 18½ and 25 years old are needed for training as air observers. On completion of this training they will be qualified navigators.

Ni e thousand men are wanted for training as flight mechanics and riggers.

Eight thousand men are needed for training as armors, wireless operators, electricians, instrument repairers and photographers. Every man will be given a thorough trade training.

There are in all 26,000 places for men already trained; for men who have some skill in a trade and are willing and able to increase it; and for unskilled men who can take their whole training in the air force.

Finally, there are vacancies for 3,000 boys between 15 and 17 years old. They will be given courses of training for periods varying from one year to three, according to the trade they adopt.

The air force is, then, a great school of technical training. The greater numbers of the men who serve in it are learning. Technical proficiency is the standard to which pay and rank are adjusted. And in order that every man may have the opportunity of profiting he has for acquiring technical skill, he is also encouraged to continue his general education concurrently.

In return for his services the airman is paid in accordance with rates which have been considerably improved recently.

In addition to pay and allowances he is well fed and clothed. He is given medical attention and facilities for sports and continued education at no cost to himself. He is also fully paid during his holidays.

Pay and allowances in cash or kind for short service commission officers are equivalent of £340 ($1,700) a year on entry, increasing to £390 ($1,950) after a year's service. The gratuity paid to these officers on passing to the reserve after four years' service is £300 ($1,500).

Air observers, with the rank of corporal, are given pay and allowances equivalent to £235 ($1,175) a year.

Airmen in the highly-skilled trades of fitter and metal worker are paid either 3s. 9d. (87 cents), 4s. 6d. ($1.12), or 5s. 6d. ($1.37) a day for seven days a week, according to the proficiency they attain in their final tests.

Flight mechanics and riggers receive 3s. 6d. (82 cents), 4s. 3d. ($1.06), or 5s. ($1.25), also according to the results of their final tests. Aircraft apprentices under training are paid from 7s. ($1.75) to 10s. 6d. ($2.62) weekly.

Physical fitness and mental alertness are of prime importance to the Royal Air Force. Sport is therefore given a prominent place in the airman's daily life. There is no compulsion. On the contrary, the opportunities for sports of many kinds are enthusiastically grasped.

It is some indication of this enthusiasm that most of the inter-services sporting championships were won last year by the air force.

CHANCE TO SEE WORLD

With sporting and other facilities which the Royal Air Force places freely at the disposal of all who join, may be put the advantage of travel abroad.

There are air force commands overseas in Egypt, Palestine, Iraq, India, Malta, Singapore and Aden. Apart from officers holding short service commissions, all ranks normally do at least one tour of overseas duty. They therefore have the opportunity of broadening their knowledge of the world.

Another characteristic of the Royal Air Force which should not be overlooked is the opportunity of advancement within the service which it offers.

For airmen in most of the skilled trades there is opportunity to become an airman pilot with the rank of sergeant.

For the sergeant-pilot there is the opportunity of obtaining a permanent commission.

For the boy who enters as an aircraft apprentice there is the opportunity of being selected to pass direct from his apprenticeship to the cadet college at Cranwell, there to be trained for a permanent commission.

The opportunity of earning promotion up to highest rank in the air force is open to all with ability and initiative.

The Royal Air Force is precluded by the nature of its special duties from offering lifelong service to all. The short service commission officer and the directly enlisted air observer serve for four years.

Airmen in the different trades serve for longer periods, which vary according to their trades.

Boys who take their training in the air force serve till the age of 30, if entered as boy apprentices, and to the age of 27 if entered as boy entrants.

Opportunities to continue in the service after completion of the period of initial engagement are offered to substantial numbers of men, and a proportion are selected to serve the full term of 24 years necessary to qualify for pension.

EQUIPPED FOR CIVIL LIFE
Those who leave on completion of their initial period of engagement do so with every prospect of doing well in civil life.

Every man leaves with a cash gratuity in his pocket, and, for stock-in-trade, the skill he has acquired in his craft. He has the health and strength bestowed by years of vigorous, healthy life.

He is abreast of the latest mechanical and scientific developments of aviation, and has the further advantage of a service background.

If an airman, he is also fully insured in national health, unemployment insurance, and the widows' orphans', and old age contributory pensions scheme.

An organization exists to help men leaving the service to find civil employment. It is not surprising, in the circumstances, that an extremely high proportion find new posts without difficulty.

But there is another consideration which should be borne in mind when assessing the value of an air force career as a training for civil life. Side by side with the rapid expansion of the Royal Air Force a scarcely less remarkable development of civil aviation is taking place.

EQUIPMENTS GAIN

MONTREAL (CP)—The stock market limped cautiously along the road to higher levels near the close today. Moderate demand for equipments raised National Steel Corp., Canadian Car and Foundry, and Dominion Steel and Coal B. each.

Price improved ½ and St. Lawrence Corporation ¼, while Bathurst shipped ¼.

After a firm opening, utilities eased slightly. Montreal Power was unchanged and Shawinigan ¼ lower. Brazilian moved up ¼.

Elsewhere on the list Imperial Oil and C.P.R. added ¼ each.

Whale Sharks

On an August morning three summers ago, some fishermen went to look at their fish trap beside Fire Island, not far south of Long Island. It was a large trap, cleverly made to capture fish which might swim into it. At one end was an opening 60 feet wide. It was a trap easy to get in, but hard to get out of, if the fish didn't turn around.

Thirty-one foot whale shark captured near Fire Island

At the end was an almost closed part with a strong net which could be pulled up — sometimes almost full of fish. There wasn't a great catch of ordinary fish that day, but there was something else, a gigantic shark!

After much trouble the fishermen drew up the net and put a rope around the fish. It was still alive, but it did not struggle. When the ropes were made tight, it was possible to tow the animal ashore behind a rather large boat.

The Schaper brothers, Nick and Aris, were in charge of the crew. One of them telephoned the American Museum of Natural History, and E. W. Gudger, an expert on fish, left New York in a hurry to visit the "monster". To his amazement, he found it was a whale shark. No record had existed before of a whale shark swimming so far north.

Mr. Gudger measured the fish, and found it to be 31½ feet long. The width of the head was five feet. The mouth was 44 inches wide.

The big shark was placed on exhibition near the spot it had been landed, and during the next two days thousands of people paid small fees to look at it. Then the skin was sold to a millionaire, and the skull was presented to the American Museum.

"That whale shark" was remarkable because it was caught so far north, but it is by no means the largest one which has been measured. In tropical waters, a few specimens from 50 to 60 feet long have been found floating about dead, or have been washed up on shore.

An American sea captain, H. J. Bradley, tells of an enormous whale shark which used to come within range of the shore of St. Andrews, a small island near Panama. This fish, he says, was so large it could not swim in water less than 15 feet deep. Another whale shark in the same region was reported to be "at least as long as a 70 foot schooner" which passed it — but no one used a tape-measure on the animal.

Whale sharks have many teeth, but very tiny ones. They could easily swallow a man, but are not fierce and are not classed as "man-eaters."

HOROSCOPE

"The stars incline, but do not compel." Saturday, September 3, 1938. Benefic aspects rule strongly today, according to astrology. The planetary government is rarely fortunate for most persons, and should inspire wise use of talents and opportunities. Heads of business or government projects are well directed under this sway.

Women should be most fortunate under this rule, which stimulates worthy ambitions and wise foresight. It is lucky for executives.

Girls may be sought by worthwhile suitors on this date, which is promising for social contacts and serious heart interest.

As autumn plans mature the stars smile upon those whose vocation is artistic. Musicians and actors, painters and sculptors will be gainfully occupied.

This is an auspicious date for signing legal papers. Contracts and leases are under the most promising rule of the planets. Treaties with European nations are forecast.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of prosperity and success. Speculation will bring large returns. Friends who wield influence will be gained.

Children born on this day probably will be intellectual and ambitious. Subjects of this sign use their minds with careful adjustments between ambitions and limitations.

Peru had four presidents in the same number of years.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR MISS DIX—What can a wife do to improve her husband's manners? My husband comes in to dinner and before I get the table completely set he starts eating without even a thought of waiting for me. He does not sit correctly at the table. Gobbles his food as fast as he can. Leaves his spoon in his cup when he drinks and does not use his knife and fork properly. As I am newly married and not used to such ways I am humiliated beyond words. What can I do about it? WORRIED WIFE.

Answer: Not much, I am afraid, for husbands like to think that they are little tin gods to their wives, and when Wife begins plucking the halo from their brows trouble ensues.

Marriage really should be a sort of mutual improvement society in which husbands and wives should be able to tell each other of their shortcomings and help each other to correct their faults. Especially should the one who is more intelligent, better educated, and who has had more social experience be able to give the other the advantages of his or her superior culture and polish up the other's diction and manners.

But experience shows that this cannot be done, and that there is no other person in the world from whom a husband or wife will not take criticism with more grace than from a wife or husband. The minute Mr. Jones corrects Mrs. Jones' pronunciation or grammar, that minute Mrs. Jones bursts into tears and says that he doesn't love her, is ashamed of her, wishes he hadn't married her, and boo-hoo, boo-hoo she is going back to Mother, where people didn't think she was the dust of the earth and trample on her.

Just let Mrs. Smith ever so tactfully suggest to Mr. Smith that swordswallowing is not done in our best circles and that soup isn't a gargle, but food, Mr. Smith bangs out of the front door and goes in search of some lady who tells him how wonderful he is and doesn't mention his table manners.

So prudent husbands and wives leave it to others, who don't have to live with them, to tell their mates of their faults. If you are wise you will follow their example. Maybe your husband has virtues that atone for his ignorance of table etiquette. But many a wife before you has wished that love really was blind and dumb when she sat down at the table with her husband. DOROTHY DIX.

C.P.R. Construction Engineer Retires

Thomas Martin of Winnipeg Terminates 36 Years With Company

WINNIPEG—Travelers across Canada over Canadian Pacific Railway lines owe recognition to Thomas Martin, who said goodbye today to his active service colleagues when he retired on pension. Mr. Martin closed 36 years with the company, the last 15 of which he was divisional engineer of the Portage division, with a break of two years, 1930 to 1932, when he went to Vancouver to construct the railway tunnel under Vancouver city. He succeeded at Winnipeg by V. H. Carruthers, roadmaster of Lanigan, Sask., who has held various positions, chiefly in the Saskatchewan district.

Mr. Martin's name is synonymous with hazard in railway construction. From 1915 to 1917 he lived at Glacier as resident engineer on the construction of the famous Connaught Tunnel, working with W. A. Jones, assistant chief engineer. He took heavy personal risks in the engineering emergency involved in the Frank, Alta., slide in 1906.

He has been divisional engineer at Calgary and Moose Jaw and superintendent of the double tracking between Swift Current and Broadview. He held similar positions at Revelstoke and Nelson.

Mr. Martin contemplates visiting his son Thomas, chemical engineer with British Industries in Persia.

Last Race, Says Capt. Ben Pine

BOSTON (AP)—Win, lose or draw, Capt. Ben Pine, veteran of many sailing duels, insists the series opening off Boston October 9 for the International Fishermen's Trophy will be his last.

On that date his Gloucester schooner Gertrude L. Thebaud will meet the Canadian champion, Capt. Angus Walters' big salt-banker Bluenose of Lunenburg, N.S.

If the captain of Thebaud stands by what he says—and he usually does—it probably means the curtain will drop permanently on the most picturesque of salt water sports, for no one has appeared who has shown a disposition to carry on.

U.S. Fleet Shifts To Atlantic

Squadron of 14 Newest Warcraft Transferred From Pacific

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States Navy unexpectedly announced yesterday that a "temporary" Atlantic squadron of 14 of its newest warcraft would be formed immediately.

Without explanation, a formal announcement said seven 10,000-ton light cruisers and seven destroyers would comprise the force, effective September 6. Rear-Admiral Forde A. Todd was designated commander.

The United States has had no organized Atlantic force since the fleet was concentrated in the Pacific in the midst of the 1931-32 Japanese-Chinese crisis.

The order for the new squadron, issued by Admiral William D. Leahy, chief of operations, hinted at a recent revision of defense strategy and stirred immediate speculation as to whether Europe's tension over the German-Czech dispute was involved. From naval officials came only the comment that the force was being formed "in preparation for fleet problem 20 and to visit such ports as are designated."

To work out this problem, involving defense of the Panama Canal against a simulated trans-Atlantic attack, the main fleet of approximately 150 warships is scheduled to engage in war games in the Atlantic early next year. It has not left the Pacific since 1934, when the armada was reviewed at New York by President Roosevelt.

The cruisers are all of 10,000 tons, armed with six-inch guns. Three destroyers are flotilla leaders of 1,850 tons and the others are 1,500-ton craft.

In addition to the new squadron, the navy has three of its older battleships, a demilitarized battleship, two new aircraft carriers and 16 older destroyers on the Atlantic coast.

ENTERPRISE DUE

Ms. Pacific Enterprise of the Furness (Pacific) Line, will make port tomorrow night from Manchester, England, it was announced today by King Bros. local agents. Owing to the Labor Day holiday the Enterprise will lay over at the Canadian National docks and commence discharging and loading cargo Tuesday morning. Freight to be taken on here includes 2,500 cases of canned loganberries and a parcel of lumber and general cargo for the United Kingdom.

LUMBER SHIPS

Other ships listed to arrive at the Canadian National docks tomorrow are the freighters Pilot and Cape Horn, lumber carriers. They also will lay over for the holiday.

SALACIA BOUND HERE

En route to Victoria from Glasgow, Ms. Salacia of the Donaldson Line, will arrive here next Friday night, according to Bob Cumberbatch of Rithet Consolidated Ltd., local agents for the line. Capt. J. B. McCafferty is in command of the Salacia. The Donaldson ship has bananas from Guayaquil and citrus fruits from Southern California for discharge at this port.

Fleet Exercises In Straits

H.M.S. York Leaves Tonight for Bermuda Via San Francisco

The guns of H.M.S. York barked a farewell to Victoria today as the British cruiser engaged in fleet exercises in the Straits.

The firing of the big six-inchers was not in the nature of a formal salute, however. It was scheduled naval practice with the Canadian destroyers Fraser and St. Laurent participating.

The York reached Victoria last evening from Comox, and after taking on supplies at Esquimalt she put out into the Straits at 9 this morning for a full day's manoeuvres.

H.M.C.S. Fraser, Commander W. B. Creery, R.C.N., and H.M.C.S. St. Laurent, Lieut. Commander A. M. Hope, R.C.N., cleared from Esquimalt harbor simultaneously.

The ships attracted widespread attention along the Dallas Road foreshore as they carried out their exercises during the day. Most of the York's armament was brought into action, her six-inchers, four-inchers and three-pounders as well as anti-aircraft guns. The cruiser's Fairey was catapulted from the deck and zoomed around, giving zest to the manoeuvres. The crews of the Fraser and St. Laurent got in some excellent target and torpedo practice.

Capt. H. E. Morse, R.N., was in charge of the York and Vice-Admiral Sir Sidney Julius Meyrick, commander-in-chief of the America and West Indies station, interestingly watched the operations.

As the day wore on the ships steamed towards the entrance to the Straits of Juan de Fuca, and by sunset H.M.S. York was scheduled to pass out to sea.

The York will put into San Francisco for a 10-day visit, and will then return to her Bermuda base via Panama.

Foreign Lumber In U.S. Marked

SEATTLE (AP)—Effective today, foreign lumber must be marked to indicate the country of its origin to be admitted through the United States customs.

The West Coast Lumberman's Association, pointing out the new setup, said an order was issued by the U.S. Treasury Department on August 22 requiring such marking.

"The order applies to all lumber imported from all foreign countries and also covers sawed timbers," officials said.

Tugboat May Be Raised Tonight

Refloating of Victoria Craft at Texada Island Under Way

Salvage operations are proceeding satisfactorily on the Victoria tug Burrard Chief on Texada Island, and it is expected the vessel will be refloated tonight, officials of the Pacific Salvage Company stated this morning.

The Skookum No. 2 and Helac No. 2, of the Vancouver plant of the Pacific Salvage Company, are working on the partly submerged tug, with W. G. Jordan of Victoria directing the operations.

No estimate has been made of the damage to the tug, which struck at Point Upwood, south end of Texada, in a fog early yesterday.

Capt. Joseph Barlow and his crew of five men had a narrow escape when the tug heeled over and quickly submerged after striking the rock.

When the Burrard Chief has been raised by the derrick scows now on the job, she will be brought to Victoria for repairs, it is understood.

The tug was bound from Vancouver with two scows for Klumb Bay, B.C., when she fouled the Texada reef.

B.C. Salmon Pack 895,03 Cases

VANCOUVER (CP)—The British Columbia salmon pack for the current season to August 27 totaled 895,003 cases compared with 829,906 cases at the corresponding date last year, a gain of 56,097 cases, according to a bulletin issued today by the chief supervisor of fisheries here.

The record high for any year since 1933 was reached in 1936 when the total pack for the corresponding period totaled 1,228,607 cases.

Largest increase this year was in coho with the pack totaling 103,830 cases against 42,931 last year.

Sockeye also registered a substantial increase with 329,728 cases this year and 303,719 in 1937.

Pinks fell off during the present season with only 341,465 cases packed against 373,830 last year.

Swedish Crew Is Released

Capt. H. Johnson and Men of Ms. Femia Allowed to Go in Japan

TOKIO (CP)—Capt. Hugo Johnson of the Swedish motorship Femia and his crew of 25, held since last Sunday on charges of invading territorial waters were released yesterday by Japanese authorities. Police finally were satisfied the Femia lost its way in a dense fog and did not intentionally enter a forbidden zone.

VANCOUVER (CP)—Capt. Hugo Johnson and 25 crew members of the Swedish motorship Femia, released in Tokyo after being held on charges of invading Japanese territorial waters, left New Westminster, B.C., August 9 with a cargo of lumber for China.

Word reaching the Femia's Vancouver agents last Saturday said the vessel had run aground on the Japanese island of Nemura in a dense fog August 26. Some anxiety was felt for the men's safety as no immediate news was received of their whereabouts.

A Tokio dispatch said Capt. Johnson and his crew were released after satisfying police they did not intentionally enter a forbidden zone.

McFadden Out of Bendix Air Race

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Bernarr McFadden, 72, flying publisher, yesterday cracked up the airplane he had planned to use in the Bendix air race to Cleveland Saturday. He said he was out of the speed classic.

McFadden was practicing landing at the Union Air Terminal. His ship was caught in a quartering cross-wind and crashed to the ground.

Convention Closes At Jasper Park

Pilchards Running

VANCOUVER (CP)—Scattered schools of pilchard appearing off the west coast of Vancouver Island raised hopes of reduction-plant operators for a heavy run before the season closes at the end of this month.

Reports reaching here said a seiner had taken 700 tons of pilchard off Kyuquot this week for reduction at Ceepeece. Boats cruising farther south looked small schools off Estevan.

4 Rescued From Overturned Boat

HOOD RIVER, Ore. (AP)—A faint cry for help and a night-shirt rescue saved the lives of four Hood River men who had clung to an overturned boat for more than two hours last night.

Earl Dipez, caretaker at Morrison's Island in the Columbia River, leaped from bed, clad only in a night-shirt, to launch a boat and pull the men from the river. Rescued were Aniel McCoy, Jim Patton, Johnny Corbett and "Shorty" Irving, all suffering from exhaustion and exposure.

Photographs can be applied to pottery by a process similar to engraving.

FOOTING IT UP FUJI WITH THE FLAG—International alliances against Communism reached new heights when representatives of Germany, Italy, Spain, Hungary, Manchukuo, the Japanese puppet government of North China and of course, the Japanese, toiled up the five paths to sacred Mount Fujiyama near Tokio. As they neared the summit they unfurled their national flags and cheered themselves and their alliance against Communism. Then they furled their flags and toiled back again.
